

Conference on Latin American History
Hemispheric Institute on the Americas
University of California at Davis
One Shields Avenue
Davis, CA 95616
Email: clah@ucdavis.edu

THE CONFERENCE ON LATIN AMERICAN HISTORY

in affiliation with

The American Historical Association

2003 ANNUAL MEETING

The Program of CLAH Activities and Latin American Sessions

Chicago, Illinois
January 2-5, 2003

Palmer House Hilton

CLAH Events and AHA Latin America Sessions
2003 meetings, Chicago, Illinois Jan. 2-5, 2003

Thursday, January 2

CLAH Information Table

Thu. 2:30–6:00 p.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 3

CLAH Regional Committee Representatives Meeting

Thu. 4:00–5:00 p.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 4

CLAH General Committee/Business Meeting

Thu. 5:00–7:00 p.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 5

CLAH Projects and Publications Committee

Thu. 7:00–9:00 p.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 4

CLAH Social Science History Committee

Thu. 7:00–9:00 p.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 6

Friday, January 3

CLAH Information Table

Fri. 7:30–11:00 a.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 3

Session 1: Failures of Intervention and the Formation of the Good Neighbor Policy

Fri. 7:30–9:15 a.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 5

Chair: Richard Grossman, Northeastern Illinois University

Papers:

The Failure of the Platt Amendment and the Origins of the Good Neighbor Policy: U.S. Interventionism in Cuba between the War with Spain and the 1933 Revolution.

Carlos Alzugaray Treto, Instituto Superior de Relaciones Internacionales Raúl Roa García

The National Guard and the Rise of Trujillo: The Foundation of the Good Neighbor Policy in the Dominican Republic.

Michael R. Hall, Armstrong Atlantic University

“Not on the Right Track”: The Failures of the U.S. War Against Augusto Sandino of Nicaragua and the Origins of the Good Neighbor Policy

Richard Grossman, Northeastern Illinois University

The transnational movement against U.S. intervention in Latin America in the 1920s and the Good Neighbor Policy

Anne Winkler-Morey, University of Minnesota

Comment: Eric Paul Roorda, Bellarmine University

Session 2, (joint with AHA#24): Race to the End of Empire: The Racial Dimensions of Royal Policy in Late Colonial Spanish America

Fri. 9:30-11:30 a.m., Hilton, Conference Room 4M

Chair: Douglas Cope, Brown University

Papers:

"Suckled by their Women." Race Children and Bourbon Social Reforms in Lima

Bianca Premo, Emory University

Is Race a 'Defect'? Official and Popular Debates over Whitening in Late Colonial Spanish America.

Ann Twinam, University of Cincinnati

Race and the Limits of Loyalty in Late Colonial Cuba

David Sartorius, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill

Comment: Ben Vinson III, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Session 3, (joint with AHA#25): Solidarity: Organizing Opposition to U.S. Intervention in Latin America in the 1970s and 1980s

Fri. 9:30-11:30 a.m., Palmer House, Parlor B

Chair: Mary Kay Vaughn, University of Maryland

Papers:

Clergy, Exiles and Academics: Opposition to the Brazilian Military Dictatorship in the United States, 1969-74.

James Green, California State U., Long Beach

North Americans and Chile: Building and Sustaining a Transnational Solidarity Movement.

Margaret Power, Illinois Institute of Technology

Nicaraguan Solidarity: A Transitory and Transitional Phenomenon

Julie Charlip, Whitman College

Comment: Steven Volk, Oberlin College

Session 4: Contesting Authority on Spanish Imperial Frontiers

Fri. 9:30-11:30 a.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 5

Chair: Marshall Eakin, Vanderbilt University

Papers:

The Lieutenant Nun on the Colonial frontier: Constructing and Challenging Gender Identity in the War of Arauco

Eugene Berger, Vanderbilt University

(Session 4, continued):

Exceeding Proper Bounds: Encomendero Challenges to Religious and Civil Authority in Valladolid, Yucatán in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Century

Kimberly Henke Breuer, Vanderbilt University

Biography of a Mexican "Indiada": Popular and Personal Rebellion in the Colotlán Region, 1810-1811

Barry Matthew Robinson, Vanderbilt University

Comment: Susan Migden Socolow, Emory University

Session 5: Traffic Lights: Postcolonial Studies, Anthropology, Latin American History

Fri. 9:30-11:30 a.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 6

Chair: Mark Thurner, University of Florida

Papers:

Unchartered Landscapes of 'Latin America': Latin American Studies, Colonial Studies, and Spain's 19th Century Empire

Javier Morillo, Macalester College

Double Consciousness in the Andes

Joanne Rappaport, Georgetown University

Did Latin American Creoles Invent the Nation-State and its Key Concept, Race?

Thomas Abercrombie, New York University

Comment: Andrés Guerrero, FLACSO-Ecuador

Claudio Lomnitz, University of Chicago

CLAH Luncheon Fri. 12:00-2:00 p.m.

University Club of Chicago, 76 East Monroe Street, Michigan Room

Presiding: Asunción Lavrin, CLAH President, Arizona State University

Speaker: Ricardo Cicerchia, University of Buenos Aires

Title: The Arena of Memory: Travelers, Historians and Cultural Frontiers

Session 6, (joint with AHA#34): Social Mobility and Military Subcultures among Saint-Domingue's Free Population of Color before the Haitian Revolution: Three Regional Perspectives

Fri. 2:30-4:30 p.m., Palmer House, LaSalle Room 1

Chair: Robert Forster, Johns Hopkins University

Papers:

"A Blue Coat In The Wardrobe": Military Service as Part of a Family Strategy for Social Promotion Among Freedmen in Saint-Domingue

Stewart King, Mount Angel Seminary

(Session, 6, continued):

Pre-Revolutionary Military Culture and Free Men of Color on Saint-Domingue's Southern Frontier

John Garrigus, Jacksonville University

*Réussir dans un monde d'hommes: stratégies des femmes de couleur au
Cap-Français et au Port-au-Prince*

Dominique Rogers, Pablo Neruda High School

Comment: Robert Forster, Johns Hopkins University

Session 7, (joint with AHA#49): The Construction of New States (and Nations?) in Nineteenth-Century Latin America

Fri. 2:30–4:30 p.m., Hilton, Williford Room C

Chair: Frank Safford, Northwestern University

Papers:

From State to Nation in Nineteenth-Century Brazil

Richard Graham, University of Texas at Austin

The Formation of a 'Model Republic': Reflections on State-building and Nation-building in Chile, 1820s-1870s

Simon Collier, Vanderbilt University

Mental States and the State of Law: State- and Nation-Building in Nineteenth-Century Argentina

Mark D. Szuchman, Florida International University

Governing Locally: Village and Nation in Early Nineteenth-Century Mexico

Karen Caplan, Rutgers University, Newark

Comment: Jeremy Adelman, Princeton University

Session 8, (joint with AHA#50): Repression, Remembering, and Responsibility: Historical Interrogations of State Security Agents in Twentieth-Century Latin America

Fri. 2:30–4:30 p.m., Palmer House, Parlor H

Chair: John D. French, Duke University

Papers:

Military Poetics and National Memory in Chilean State Formation

Lessie Jo Frazier, University of South Carolina

(Session 8, continued):

The Politics of Aphorism: The Social Question as a Police Matter (Um Caso de Policia)

John D. French, Duke University

Contingency and the Event: A Historical Approach to the Role of Security Forces in the 1980 Spanish Embassy Assault in Guatemala

Myrna Ivonne Wallace Fuentes, Duke University

Comment: Aldo Lauria-Santiago, College of the Holy Cross

Session 9: Secularization and Urban Reforms in Bourbon Spanish America

Fri. 2:30-4:30 p.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 5

Chair: Charles Walker, University of California, Davis

Papers:

From Kuraka to Cura: The Colonial Educational Project for Andean Elites

Alcira Dueñas Martínez, Universidad de Nariño

Festering Matters: Burial Practices, Scientific Discussions of Epidemics, and the Policing of Lima's Smells, 1770-1820

Adam Warren, University of California, San Diego

State Reform, Religious Practice, and Local Identity in Colonial Mexico City

Matthew O'Hara, University of California, San Diego

Shaky Secularization: State and Church in the Aftermath of the 1746 Earthquake in Lima, Peru

Charles Walker, University of California, Davis

Comment: Richard A. Warren, St. Joseph's University

Session 10, (joint with the Coordinating Council for Women in History): New Directions in Latin American Gender History

Fri. 2:30-4:30 p.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 6

Chair: Jocelyn Olcott, Duke University

Papers:

Gender Studies in Early Spanish America

Peter Sigal, California State University, Los Angeles

Social History and Gender Studies in Brazil: Some Recent Developments

Cristiana Schettini Pereira, Universidade Estadual de Campinas

En/Gendering the U.S.-Mexico Borderlands

Alexandra Minna Stern, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor

(Session 10, continued):

Add Gender and Stir: Reassessing Gains and Limits in Latin American Gender History in the Modern Period

Elizabeth Quay Hutchison, University of New Mexico

Comment: Robert Buffington, Bowling Green State University

HAHR Board of Editors Meeting

Fri. 5:00 -7:00 p.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 7

CLAH Mexican Studies Committee. Roundtable on Recent Dissertation Research in Mexican History

Fri. 5:00 -7:00 p.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 4

Chair: Peter Guardino, Indiana University

Participants:

Sarah Buck, Allegheny College

Nicole von Germeten, University of California, Berkeley

Christina Bueno, University of California, Davis

Stephanie Smith, Indiana State University

Julie O'Hara, Xavier University

Kristin Harper, University of Massachusetts, Amherst

Karen Caplan, Rutgers University, Newark

Andrew Fisher, University of California, San Diego

William Connell, Tulane University

CLAH Caribbean Studies Committee. Recent Historiographical Trends on the Caribbean

Fri. 5:00 -7:00 p.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 5

Chair: Dennis R. Hidalgo, Adelphi University

Papers:

Beyond "siglos en blanco": Puerto Rico in the Eighteenth Century

Jorge Chinae, Wayne State University

Touring the Popular: A Historiographical Snapshot of Cuban Cultural and Labor History from 1992 to the Present

Kirk Kirwin, Pennsylvania State University

Militant Heroines and the Consecration of the Patriarchal State: The Glorification of Loyalty, Combat, and National Suicide in the Making of Cuban National Identity

Lynn Stoner, Arizona State University

(Caribbean Studies Committee, continued):

The Various Instances Dominicans Achieved Independence: Historians and the Dominican Republic in the Nineteenth Century

Dennis R. Hidalgo, Adelphi University

Comment: Michele Wucker, New School University

CLAH Central American Studies Committee. New Research on Central American History: Continuity vs. Revisionism

Fri. 5:00 -7:00 p.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 6

Chair: Ralph Lee Woodward, Texas Christian University

Papers:

Tomas Guardia: The Heart of a Caudillo

Mark William Thomason, Texas Christian University

The Comités de Defensa Sandinista: A Help or Hindrance to the Revolution?

Dee R. Mitchell, Tulane University

Insurgent Youth: Masculinity, Youth Culture and the Politics of Memory in Leon Nicaragua, 1959-1990

Francisco J. Barbosa, Indiana University

Who Dug the Big Ditch?: Labor and Garveyism in Panama, the Strike of 1920

Carla Burnett, University of Illinois at Chicago

CLAH Brazilian Studies Committee. New Perspectives on Brazilian History

Fri. 7:00-9:00 p.m., Palmer House, Parlor C

Co-Chairs: Mary Ann Mahony, Columbia College

Hal Langfur, University of North Carolina at Wilmington

Papers:

Aldear, resocializar, converter e capacitar: Os aldeamentos centrais capuchinhos no vale do Rio Doce (Minas Gerais) na segunda metade do século XIX

Maria Hilda Baqueiro Paraiso, Universidade Federal da Bahia

Rifles, Hoes, and Cattle Bells: Re-examining Society and Violence in the Cearense Sertão, 1840-1890

Martha Sofia Santos, University of Arizona

A influência ibérica no pensamento brasileiro: o caso de Luis da Câmara Cascudo

Durval Muniz de Albuquerque Júnior, Universidade Federal de Campina Grande

Paulo Freire and the Politics of the Brazilian Northeast, 1961-1964

Andrew Kirkendall, Texas A&M University

CLAH International Scholarly Relations Committee

Fri. 7:00-9:00 p.m., Palmer House, Parlor D

Chair: David Sartorius, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

CLAH Colonial Studies Committee. The Socioeconomic Role of Women in Colonial Latin America

Fri. 7:00-9:00 p.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 16

Chair: David Weiland, University of Utah

CLAH Gran-Colombian Studies Committee. Race and Citizenship in the Independence of Gran Colombia

Fri. 7:00-9:00 p.m., Palmer House, Parlor G

Chair: Nancy P. Appelbaum, State University of New York at Binghamton

Papers:

Pardos and the Question of Citizenship during Venezuela's Independence

Carl T. Almer, University of California, Irvine

New Granada's Independence and the Specter of Pardocracia: Cartagena in the 1820s

Aline Helg, University of Texas, Austin

Indians and Independence in the Historia Patria of Gran Colombia

Rebecca Earle, University of Warwick

Comment: Camilla Townsend, Colgate University

Christopher Schmidt-Nowara, Fordham University

Saturday, January 4

CLAH Information Table

Sat. 7:30-10:30 a.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 3

Session 11: Modernity and State Effects: Case Studies from Latin America

Sat. 7:30-9:15 a.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 5

Chair: Lisa Wedeen, University of Chicago

Papers:

Fighting for Modernity: Race, Work, and the Making of Unassimilable Citizens

Deborah Cohen, Mount Holyoke College

Spectacles of State, Currency and Witchcraft: The 1954 Robbery of the Royal Bank of Canada in Santo Domingo

Lauren Derby, University of Chicago

(Session 11, continued)

Revolutionary Geographies and Gender Transformation in Sandinista and Post-Sandinista Nicaragua

Rosario Montoya, University of Colorado at Boulder

Comment: Michel-Rolph Trouillot, University of Chicago

Lessie Jo Frazier, University of South Carolina

Session 12, (joint with AHA#86): Citizenship, Law, and Nation: Inclusion and Exclusion during Brazil's Estado Novo

Sat. 9:30–11:30 a.m., Hilton, Conference Room 4M

Chair: Brodwyn Fischer, Northwestern University

Papers:

Vargas and the Legal Conquest of Amazonia

Seth Garfield, University of Texas at Austin

Popular Music and Popular Citizenship in Brazil's Vargas Period

Bryan McCann, Georgetown University

Rights by Law, or Laws by Right? Legal and Popular Visions of Entitlement in Brazil's Estado Novo

Brodwyn Fischer, Northwestern University

Comment: Dain Borges, University of Chicago

Session 13, (joint with AHA#87): Death, Dismemberment, and Political Memory in Latin America

Sat. 9:30–11:30 a.m., Palmer House, Parlor A

Chair: Donna Guy, Ohio State University

Papers:

Mexican Martyr, The Torment, Death and Reinvention of Cuauhtémoc

Lyman Johnson, University of North Carolina at Charlotte

The Arm and Body of the Mexican Revolution: The Post-Mortem Career of Alvaro Obregón

Jurgen Buchenau, University of North Carolina at Charlotte

Resurrecting Rosas: Repatriation and Revision of a Nineteenth Century Caudillo in Late-Twentieth Century Argentina

Jeffrey Shumway, Brigham Young University

Comment: Donna Guy, Ohio State University

Session 14: Honor, Corruption, and Scientific Institutions: Shaping the Latin American Public

Sat. 9:30-11:30 a.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 4

Chair: Everard Meade, University of Chicago

Papers:

"National Health is National Wealth": Doctors, Disease, Leprosy, and the Body Politic in Colombia

Hayley Susan Froyland, University of Virginia

National Patricians Against 'Imperial' Technocrats: Scientific Authority, Corruption and Control of Public Health in Costa Rica, 1915-1930

Steven Palmer, University of Windsor

Honor and Mental Disease: The Medicalization of Sexuality and the Concept of Honor in Buenos Aires, 1900-1930

Mariano Ben Plotkin, New York University

"I Married a Sex Strangler": The Crime Pages and Capital Punishment in Mexico City, 1942

Everard Meade, University of Chicago

Comment: Claudio Lomnitz, University of Chicago

Session 15: Roundtable: Conflicting Missions: Havana, Washington, and Africa, 1959-1976

Sat. 9:30-11:30 a.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 5

Chair: Greg Grandin, New York University

Participants:

Piero Gleijeses, Johns Hopkins SAIS

Tim Borstelmann, Cornell University

Aline Helg, University of Texas at Austin

Peter Kornbluh, The National Security Archives

Nick Cullather, Indiana University

Rebecca Hardin, Harvard Academy

The Americas Board of Editors luncheon

Sat. 12:00-2:00 p.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 6

Presiding: Judith Ewell, College of William & Mary, Editor

Session 16, (joint with AHA#114 and the Coordinating Council for Women in History): Gender Ideology, Sexual Violence, and the History of Non-Elite Women's Private and Public Options in Latin America

Sat. 2:30-4:30 p.m., Palmer House, LaSalle Room 1

Chair: Elizabeth Kuznesof, University of Kansas

Papers:

Courtroom Tales of Violence, Sex and Honor: Rapto and Rape in Late Nineteenth-Century Puerto Rico

Eileen Findlay, American University

Runaway Daughters: Young Women's Roles in Rapto Cases in Nineteenth-Century Mexico

Kathy Sloan, University of Kansas

The Scripts of Violence: Symbolism and Language in Everyday Conflicts: Mexico, 1750-1856

Sonya Lipsett-Rivera, Carleton University

Uma boa moça: Changing Definitions of Female Honor in Brazil: 1730-1930

Elizabeth Kuznesof, University of Kansas

Comment: Christine Hünefeldt, University of California, San Diego

Session 17, (joint with AHA#115): Mita and Slavery: The Realities of Bondage in the North Andes

Sat. 2:30-4:30 p.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 17

Chair: Colin Palmer, Princeton University

Papers:

Slaves, Rebels, Apprentices: The Captivity Continuum in Early Colonial Quito

Kris Lane, College of William & Mary

Subjects of the King: Andeans, Criollos and the Notion of Mercy in Late Seventeenth and Early Eighteenth-Century Quito

Sherwin Bryant, Ohio State University

Performing Difference: Casta Categories Within Colonization and Slavery During the Long 17th Century on the Northern Peruvian Coast

Rachel O'Toole, Villanova University

Comment: Camilla Townsend, Colgate University

Session 18: Latin American Labor under Populist Rule, 1920-60

Sat. 2:30-4:30 p.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 4

Chair: John D. French, Duke University

Papers:

Mexico: The Formation of the Official Party and the Sense of Popular Empowerment, 1928-1938

Michael Monteón, Univ. of California, San Diego

Resistance Ideology and the Rise of Haitian Labor, 1930-1948

Matthew Smith, University of Florida

The Organization of Rural Life: The Long-Term Influence of Vargas-Era Policies

Cliff Welch, Grand Valley State University

Comment: John D. French, Duke University

Session 19: The Meanings of Murder: Homicide and Identity Formation in Mexico, 1880-1924

Sat. 2:30-4:30 p.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 5

Chair: Katherine Bliss, University of Massachusetts, Amherst

Papers:

Who Killed Ramón González: Murder and Postrevolutionary Politics in Michoacán

Christopher Boyer, University of Illinois at Chicago

Violence Against Women and the Transformation of Intimacy in Turn-of-the-Century Mexico City

Robert Buffington, Bowling Green State University

The Girl who Killed a Deputy: Women, Juries, and Politics in Postrevolutionary Mexico

Pablo Piccato, Columbia University

Murder Averted: The Rebirth of Relational Feminism in Early Twentieth Century Mexico

Susie Porter, University of Utah

Comment: Florencia Mallon, University of Wisconsin, Madison

CLAH Andean Studies Committee: Roundtable Discussion on
"Race," in colonial Peru

Sat. 5:00-7:00 p.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 4

Co-Chairs: Kathryn Burns, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
Sarah Chambers, University of Minnesota

Participants:

Karen Graubart, Cornell University
Rachel O'Toole, Villanova University
Leo Garofalo, Connecticut College

CLAH Chile-Rio de la Plata Studies Committee. Oral History, Gender, Class, and Political Cultures: *Doña María's Story

Sat. 5:00-7:00 p.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 5

Chair: Lessie Jo Frazier, University of South Carolina

Participants:

Daniel James, Indiana University
Florencia Mallon, University of Wisconsin, Madison
Deborah Levenson-Estrada, Boston College

CLAH Teaching and Teaching Materials Committee. Textbooks and the Art of Synthesis: A Roundtable on Teaching and Writing the History of Latin America

Sat. 5:00-7:00 p.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 6

Chair: Mark Wasserman, Rutgers University

Participants:

Peter Bakewell, Southern Methodist University
William Beezley, University of Arizona
Lyman Johnson, University of North Carolina, Charlotte
Julie Charlip, Whitman College
John Chasteen, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill
Lawrence Clayton, University of Alabama
Benjamin Keen, Northern Illinois University
Keith Haynes, The College of Saint Rose
Cheryl Martin, University of Texas, El Paso
Thomas Skidmore, Brown University
Susan Socolow, Emory University
Peter Winn, Tufts University

CLAH Borderlands/Frontiers Studies Committee. Revisiting Conflict and Violence on Frontiers: Old Paradigms and New Approaches

Sat. 5:00–7:00 p.m., Palmer House, Private Dining Room 7

Chair: Susan M. Deeds, Northern Arizona University

Papers:

Interpersonal Conflict among the Guarani from the Jesuit Missions in Paraguay in the Late Eighteenth Century

Barbara Ganson, Florida Atlantic University

The Violence of Everyday Life on the Frontier: Interethnic Conflict on the Bolivian Chaco Frontier

Erick Langer, Georgetown University

"Without Regularity or Concert": Doing Violence on Mexico's Northern Frontier

Lance Blyth, Northern Arizona University

Paradox and Politics in Borderland Violence

James F. Brooks, School of American Research

Comment: Kristine Jones, University of Illinois, Chicago

CLAH Cocktail Party

Sat. 7:00–9:00 p.m., Palmer House, Wabash Parlor

Sunday, January 5

Session 20, (joint with AHA#136): Slavery, Rebellion, and Political Authority: Nation Building in Nineteenth-Century Brazil

Sun. 8:30–10:30 a.m., Hilton, Boulevard Room B

Chair: Roderick Barman, University of British Columbia

Papers:

Policing the Nation: Slavery and State Formation in the Brazilian Empire
Alexandra Brown, Florida Atlantic University

Nation Building in Brazil: The Praieira Revolt

Jeffrey Mosher, Texas Tech University

The 1871 Debate Over Abolition: A Struggle Over Representative Government

Jeffrey Needell, University of Florida

Comment: Bert Barickman, University of Arizona

Session 21, (joint with AHA#137): Traza, Plaza, and Buena Policía: Imagined Space and Community in the Spanish Colonial República de Indios

Sun. 8:30-10:30 a.m., Hilton, Boulevard Room C

Chair: Charles Walker, University of California, Davis

Papers:

Reductions and Restorations: The Question of Indian Civic Space in Sixteenth-Century Peru

Jeremy Mumford, Yale University

Foundational Fictions: Town Creation in Colonial Peru

S. Elizabeth Penry, Fordham University

Vanishing Frontiers? Mexico City's repúblicas de indios under Bourbon Rule

Luis Granados, Georgetown University

Comment: Charles Walker, University of California, Davis

Session 22, (joint with AHA#138): Constituting Citizens: Print Culture, History, and Historical Memory in the Early Chilean Republic

Sun. 8:30-10:30 a.m., Hilton, Private Dining Room 3

Chair: Peter Guardino, Indiana University

Papers:

The Republic in Print: The Role of the Press in Chile's Post-independence Political Culture

James A. Wood, North Carolina A & T State University

The Mapuche in the Eyes of a Nineteenth-Century Liberal Historian: Benjamín Vicuña Mackenna's La Guerra a Muerte

Pilar M. Herr, University of Pittsburgh at Greensburg

Schoolboys' Memories and Political Crisis: The 1850 Dissolution of the Chilean Academy of Laws

Andy Daitzman-Villalobos, College of the Holy Cross

Comment: Peter Guardino, Indiana University

OTHER AHA SESSIONS WITH LATIN AMERICAN CONTENT
(Listed in AHA program but NOT part of the CLAH program)

Plenary Session: Provincializing Europe

Thursday, January 2, 8:00-10:00 p.m., Hilton, Grand Ballroom

Chair: Natalie Zemon Davis, University of Toronto and Princeton University

Papers:

The Peril of Unintended Orientalism

Gabriel Piterberg, University of California at Los Angeles

Provincializing Europe from the Perspective of a Latin Americanist

Ann Farnsworth-Alvear, University of Pennsylvania

Global Foundations of Western Modernity

Bonnie Smith, Rutgers University

Comment: Dipesh Chakrabarty, University of Chicago

AHA#20: Border Crossings: Recent Work in Latin American Studies Funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities

Friday, January 3, 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., Hilton, Boulevard Room B
(Joint session with the National Endowment for the Humanities)

Chair: Kenneth Andrien, Ohio State University

Papers:

Arguments, Ambitions, and Anxieties in Late Colonial Mexico City:

Rethinking the Royal Academy of San Carlos

Susan Deans-Smith, University of Texas at Austin

Meditations on a Coffee Pot: Visual Culture and Historical Thinking in Spanish America, 1520/1820

Dana Leibsohn, Smith College

Diaspora Communities and the Reorientation of Latin American Studies

Rebecca Horn, University of Utah

Comment: Kenneth Andrien, Ohio State University

AHA#82: Protestantism and Consumption as Secularizing Influences in Twentieth-Century Mexico and Germany

Saturday, January 4, 9:30-11:30 a.m., Palmer House, Dearborn 3

Chair: C. John Sommerville, University of Florida

Papers:

Religious Substitution: Protestantism as a "Secular" Alternative to Catholicism in Mexico, 1920-50

Todd Hartch, Teikyo Post University

(AHA #82, continued):

The Erosion of the Catholic Milieu in Post 1945 Germany: The Role of Consumption

Mark Edward Ruff, Concordia University

Comment: Lisa Clark Diller, Southern Adventist University

AHA#109: Race, War, and Nation in Nineteenth-Century Latin America

Saturday, January 4, 2:30-4:30 p.m., Hilton, Conference Room 4D

Chair: George Reid Andrews, University of Pittsburgh

Papers:

Race and Republicanism in Caribbean Colombia, 1810-30

Marixa Lasso, California State University at Los Angeles

Liberals and Conservatives, Afro-Colombians, and Indians: Popular and Elite Strategies of Race during Colombia's Nineteenth-Century Civil Wars

James Sanders, Brooklyn College

Conflicting Images of Race and Nation in Brazil during and after the Paraguayan War

Peter M. Beattie, Michigan State University

Comment: George Reid Andrews, University of Pittsburgh

American Society of Church History #24: North/South Relationships and the Beginnings of Latin American Protestantism

Saturday, January 4, 2:30-4:30 p.m., Palmer House, Montrose Room 1

Chair: R. Bruce Mullin, General Theological Seminary

Papers:

Alberto Rombao: Latin American Protestant Pioneer for a Holistic Gospel

Ruben Rivera, Bethel College, Minnesota

The Church in the Company Town: United Fruit Company and the Quaker Mission in Eastern Cuba

Elizabeth Cazden, Manchester, New Hampshire

From Public Comrades to Undercover Foreigners: The Relationship between the Summer Institute of Linguistics (Wycliffe Bible Translators) and the Mexican Government, 1930-90

William Svelmoe, St. Mary's College, Indiana

Comment: Jay R. Case, Malone College

AHA #143. Societies, Gender, and Power in Modern Civil Wars and Revolutions: Cases and Comparisons from Europe and Mexico

Sunday, January 5, 8:30-10:30 a.m., Palmer House, Public Dining Room 5

(AHA#143, continued):

Chair: Golfo Alexopoulos, University of South Florida

Papers:

State, Society, and Popular Violence in Languedoc, 1789-93

Stephen J. Miller, University of Alabama at Birmingham

From Casino to Classroom: Labor Organizing and the Consolidation of the Mexican Revolution in the Border, 1920-38

Eric Schantz, University of California at Los Angeles

"The Master Sleeps with a Dangerous Nonchalance": Attacking Patriarchy in the Political Clubs of the 1871 Paris Commune

Carolyn J. Eichner, University of South Florida

Liberal Capitalism, International Conflict, and Civil Wars in Twentieth-Century Europe: A Comparison of Spain, Yugoslavia, and Greece

Philip B. Mineham, University of California, Los Angeles

Comment: Edward Berenson, New York University

AHA #149: Blood, "Race," and Lineage in the Early Modern Atlantic World

Sunday, January 5, 11 a.m.-1 p.m., Palmer House, Public Dining Room 18

Chair: Tamar Herzog, University of Chicago

Papers:

Constructions of "Purity" and "Blackness" in Early Colonial Mexico

María-Elena Martínez, University of Southern California

A Jewish Corner of the Sistema de Castas in Seventeenth-Century Amsterdam?

Jonathan Schorsch, Emory University

"The Blood of France": "Race" and the "Purity of Blood" in the French Atlantic World

Guillaume Aubert, Williams College

Comment: Steve J. Stern, University of Wisconsin-Madison

AHA #163. Roundtable on Eric Van Young, The Other Rebellion: Popular Violence, Ideology, and the Mexican Struggle for Independence, 1810-1821

Sunday, January 5, 11 a.m.-1 p.m., Palmer House, Adams Ballroom

Chair: Gilbert Joseph, Yale University

Panel:

Alan Knight, St. Anthony's College

Julie Saville, University of Chicago

Paul Vanderwood, San Diego State University

Comment: Eric Van Young, University of California, San Diego

HOTEL AND MEETING ROOM LOCATIONS:

CLAH headquarters will be at the Palmer House Hilton, 17 E. Monroe Street, Chicago, IL

The main website for the Palmer House is:

<http://www.hilton.com/en/hi/hotels/index.jhtml?ctyhocn=CHIPHHH>

If you want to find meeting room locations in the Palmer House, in advance of arrival in Chicago, go directly to:

<http://www.hilton.com/en/hi/hotels/floorplans.jhtml?ctyhocn=CHIPHHH>

and click the tab for “View Maps by Floor.”

Most PDR rooms (Private Dining Rooms) and the Wabash Parlor, location of the CLAH Cocktail Party, are on the 3rd floor; PDR 16 and 17 are on the 5th floor; Parlor rooms are on the 6th floor; LaSalle rooms are on the 7th floor.

Some CLAH sessions are at the Hilton Chicago, 720 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago, IL

For the Hilton, the main website is:

<http://www.hilton.com/en/hi/hotels/index.jhtml?ctyhocn=CHICHHH>

If you want to find meeting room locations in the Hilton go directly to:

<http://www.hilton.com/en/hi/hotels/floorplans.jhtml?ctyhocn=CHICHHH>

and click the tab for “View Maps by Floor.”

Boulevard rooms are on the 2nd floor; PDR and Williford rooms are on the 3rd floor; and Conference room 4M is on the 4th floor.

CLAH PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS:

The CLAH information table, where members and interested parties may obtain program and membership information and pick up Luncheon tickets, will be in the Palmer House, Private Dining Room 3. It will be staffed on Thursday, 1/2, 2:30-6:00 p.m., Friday, 1/3, 7:30-11:00 a.m., and Saturday, 7:30-10:30 a.m.

The CLAH Luncheon, with announcement of prizes and a talk by Prof. Ricardo Cicerchia of the University of Buenos Aires on "The Arena of Memory: Travelers, Historians and Cultural Frontiers," will take place at the University Club of Chicago, 76 E. Monroe St. (one block east, toward Lake Michigan, from the Palmer House), on Friday, 1/3, 12 noon to 2:00 p.m.

The CLAH Cocktail Party will take place in the Palmer House, Wabash Parlor, on Saturday, 1/4, 7:00-9:00 p.m.

For general information on the AHA meetings, including registration, housing, and transportation, go to the AHA website: <http://www.theaha.org> and follow the appropriate links.

In making lodging plans, note that most CLAH sessions and committee meetings, the CLAH information table, and the Cocktail Party are located in the Palmer House hotel. The University Club, location of the CLAH Luncheon, is one block from the Palmer House. The Hilton Chicago hotel, location of some CLAH sessions (including those on Sunday morning), is located approximately 7 blocks from the Palmer House, going south along Michigan Avenue.

For general information on Chicago, go to:
<http://www.metromix.com>