CLAH Events and AHA Latin America Sessions

CLAH Information Table Hours:
- Friday, Jan 2 12:30-6:00pm
- Saturday, Jan 3, 8:00-11:00am
- Sunday, Jan 4, 9:00-11:00am
- Sheraton New York, Lobby Level

FRIDAY, JANUARY 2

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLAH Information Table</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Friday, 12:30-6:00pm, Sheraton New York, Lobby Level</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1. Before Neoliberalism: Mexico’s Corporations Enter the Global Stage, 1970–93 (joint with AHA 6)

   - Friday, 1:00-3:00pm, Sheraton New York, Liberty Suite 5
   - Chair: Noel Maurer, Harvard University

   - How Corona Became King: Mexican Beer in the Late Twentieth Century
     - Susan M. Gauss, University at Albany (State University of New York)

   - Cementing Mexico’s Globalization: Cemex, a Regional Cement Company That Became a Global Power House
     - Rossana Fuentes-Berain, Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México

   - Early Internationalization of the Mexican Financial System, 1960–90
     - Gustavo Del Angel, Centro de Investigación y Docencia Económicas

   - Helping Mexico Smoke: British American Tobacco, Phillip Morris, and Their Mexican Partners, 1974–93
     - Andrew Paxman, Centro de Investigación y Docencia Económicas, Región Centro

   - Comment: Noel Maurer, Harvard University

   - Friday, 1:00-3:00pm, New York Hilton, Mercury Rotunda
   - Chair: Mariana L. Dantas, Ohio University

   - U.S. Representations of Brazilian Slavery
     - Luciana da Cruz Brito, Universidade de São Paulo

   - The Body of Black Women in Brazil in the Context of Racial Representation
     - Maria Helena Pereira Toledo Machado, University of São Paulo
3. Americans Abroad: Rethinking Empire and Expatriation in Latin America
Friday, 1:00-3:00pm, Sheraton New York, Carnegie Room East

Chair: Penny M. Von Eschen, University of Michigan

The First Generation of North Americans Born in Mexico? American Schooling and the Postwar Formation of a Transnational Elite
Taylor Jardno, Yale University

“Introduction to Argentina”: Cultural Pan-Americanism and Argentine Tourism in the Early Twentieth Century
Mark Petersen, University of Oxford

The GI Bill Abroad: A Postwar Experiment in International Relations
Lisa Pinley Covert, College of Charleston

“Bound for an Island I Had Hardly Thought of a Few Weeks Before”: The Formative Role of Radical Relationships in 1950s Puerto Rico
Sandy Placido, Harvard University

Comment: Penny M. Von Eschen, University of Michigan

4. Regional Cinemas and Transnational Audiences: New Film Histories in Latin America, 1910–50
Friday, 1:00-3:00pm, Sheraton New York, Carnegie Room West

Chair: Lena Suk, University of Louisiana at Lafayette

Silent Film Culture in Yucatán: Entrepreneurship and Entertainment
Laura Isabel Serna, University of Southern California

Picturing Regional Modernity in Brazil: Silent Cinema outside Rio de Janeiro and São Paulo, 1923–30
Rielle Navitski, University of Georgia

Celluloid Gauchos and Tangos: Buenos Aires as the Cultural Capital of South America in the 1930s and 1940s
Daniel Richter, University of Maryland at College Park
A Civilized Diversion in an Industrial City: Movie-Going and International Prestige in São Paulo, Brazil in the 1940s
Lena Suk, University of Louisiana at Lafayette

Comment: Fernando Purcell, Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile

5. Biographies of Ambition in the Sixteenth-Century Caribbean
Friday, 1:00-3:00pm, Sheraton New York, Liberty Suite 4

Chair: Sarah Cline, University of California, Santa Barbara

Vasco Porcallo de Figueroa: Ambition and Individualism in the Early Spanish Caribbean
Ida Altman, University of Florida

The Governor and the Bishop: Conquest and Compromise in the German Occupation of Sixteenth-Century Venezuela
Spencer Tyce, Ohio State University

A Conquistador’s Resume: Pedro de Ursúa in New Granada and Panama
Robert L. Smale, University of Missouri–Columbia

Comment: Andres Resendez, University of California, Davis

6. Resource Conflicts and Popular Imaginaries in Twentieth-Century Latin America (joint with AHA 54)
Friday, 3:30-5:30 pm, Sheraton New York, Conference Room D

Chair: Kevin Young, Stony Brook University

Fossil Fuels and Industrialization in the Basin of Mexico, 1870–1915
Germán Vergara, University of California, Berkeley

Petroleum Laborers, Rural Land, and the Rhetoric of Resource Nationalism in 1930s Mexico
Julia del Palacio Langer, Columbia University

Water and Revolution: The Bolivian Revolution and the Nationalization and Redistribution of Water Resources in the Cochabamba Valley
Sarah Thompson Hines, University of California, Berkeley

The Slippery Contours of Bolivian Nationalism: Oil in the Popular Economic Imaginary, 1952–69
Kevin Young, Stony Brook University

Minerals, Nation, and Resistance in Peru
Gerardo Rénine, City College of New York

Comment: The Audience
7. Law and Violence in Nineteenth-Century Latin America
Friday, 3:30-4:50 pm, Sheraton New York, Carnegie Room East

Chair: Joshua M. Rosenthal, Western Connecticut State University

The Death Penalty and the Post-Colonial Condition in Latin America
Everard Meade, The University of San Diego

“La Justicia Divina Se Ha de Conocer y Sentir Aunque Sea Tarde”: Ethnic Violence and Authoritarian Pluralism in Nineteenth-Century Chiapas
Marc Antone, Indiana University Bloomington

Natives, Legal Culture, and Gender: Mexico City’s Institutions of Authority in the Late Eighteenth through Nineteenth Centuries
Margarita R. Ochoa, Loyola Marymount University

Military Recruitment and Legal Sovereignty in Early Republican Mexico, 1820s–40s
Timo Schaefer, Indiana University Bloomington

Comment: Joshua M. Rosenthal, Western Connecticut State University

Friday, 3:30-5:30 pm, Sheraton New York, Carnegie Room West

Chair: Greg Childs, Brandeis University

Anxieties and Identity Formation among People of African Descent in the Province of Caracas by the End of the Eighteenth Century
Evelyne Laurent-Perrault, New York University

“We Cannot Trust Black Slaves Anymore”: Contestation and Negotiation between Whites and People of African Descent in Venezuela, 1791–1800
Cristina Soriano, Villanova University

“Unprovided Province”: Commercial Crisis, Food Shortage, and Authority in Venezuela during the Age of Revolution, 1797–1812
Edward P. Pompeian, College of Mary Washington

Comment: Reuben Zahler, University of Oregon

9. Home Is Where the “Aurika” Is: Multidisciplinary Perspectives on American, Soviet, and Corporate Modernity in Homes Overseas
Friday, 3:30-5:30 pm, Sheraton New York, Liberty Suite 4

Chair: Joel W. Wolfe, University of Massachusetts Amherst

Electric Home Sewing: Singer Electric Sewing Machines in Transnational Perspective
Paula de la Cruz-Fernandez, Humboldt University
The Material Culture of Domestic Space in Socialist Cuba
Maria Cabrera Arus, New School for Social Research

New Homes to Raise a Nation: The United Nations, American Cooperativists, and the “Master Plan” to Renovate Haiti’s Capital City, Port-au-Prince
Adam M. Silvia, Florida International University

Comment: Joel W. Wolfe, University of Massachusetts Amherst

CLAH General Committee Meeting
Friday, 6:30-8:30pm, Sheraton New York, Liberty Suite 4

SATURDAY, JANUARY 3

CLAH Information Table
Saturday, 8:00-11:00am, Sheraton New York, Lobby Level

Saturday, 8:30-10:00am, Sheraton New York, Empire Ballroom West

Chair: Manuel Barcia, University of Leeds

Atlantic History and the Slave Trade to Spanish America
David Eltis, Emory University

The Slave Trade to Colonial Mexico: Revising from Puebla de los Ángeles, 1595–1695
Pablo Sierra, University of Rochester

The Early Iberian Slave Trade to the Spanish Caribbean, 1500–1640
Marc V. Eagle, Western Kentucky University
David Wheat, Michigan State University

Comment: Paul LaChance, University of Ottawa

11. The Mental Stakes of Nation: Toward Psychiatric Discipline(s) in Latin America (joint with AHA 83)
Saturday, 8:30-10:00am, New York Hilton, Mercury Rotunda

Chair: Greg Childs, Brandeis University

Madness and Freedom; or, Color-Coding Insanity in Post-emancipation Brazil
Greg Childs, Brandeis University

In the Shadow of the Double: Psychiatry and Popular Religion in Cuba
Jennifer Lambe, Brown University
Scientific Experimentation in Peru’s Manicomio del Cercado and Larco Herrera Psychiatric Hospitals
Adam W. V. Warren, University of Washington Seattle

Comment: Richard Keller, University of Wisconsin–Madison

12. The Politics of Reproduction in the Americas: Twentieth-Century Bolivia, Jamaica, and Cuba (joint with AHA 85)
Saturday, 8:30-10:00am, New York Hilton, Nassau Suite A

Chair: Cassia Roth, University of California, Los Angeles

The Racial, Class, and Reproductive Politics of Birth Control in British Colonial Jamaica, 1938–41
Darcy Hughes Heuring, University of Chicago

Cuban Doctors without Borders: Family Planning Networks in the 1930s and 1960s
Rachel M. Hynson, Dartmouth College

“As Common as Daily Bread”: The Politics of Unwanted Pregnancy and Abortion in Bolivia’s Military Era, 1964–82
Natalie (Tasha) Kimball, College of Staten Island, City University of New York

Comment: Raul Necochea, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

13. Imperial New York City: The Scientific Survey of Puerto Rico (joint with Society for Historians of the Gilded Age and Progressive Era 74)
Saturday, 8:30-10:00am, Sheraton New York, New York Ballroom West

Chair: Darryl E. Brock, University of Bridgeport

Nathaniel Lord Britton and the Making of the Scientific Survey of Puerto Rico
Brian M. Boom, New York Botanical Garden

The Scientific Survey of Puerto Rico as Agent for Insular Development and Cultural Nationalism
Darryl E. Brock, University of Bridgeport

The Science of Imperialism and the New York Academy of Sciences’ Puerto Rican Survey
Julio Figueroa-Colon, Fundación Sendero Verde

Comment: Mariola Espinosa, University of Iowa
14. Purifying the Body Politics: Exile and Execution in Nineteenth- and Twentieth-Century Latin America

Saturday, 8:30-10:00am, Sheraton New York, Carnegie Room East

Chair: Victor Uribe Uran, Florida International University

“Another Bloody Drama”: The Yáñez Massacre and the Attempted Eradication of the Belcista Movement
Heather K. Thiessen-Reily, Western State Colorado University

Mier and Freedom of Thought in the Late New Spain and Early Mexico
Alejandro Quintana, St. John's University

Mariquita Sanchez’s Salon in Exile
Jeffrey M. Shumway, Brigham Young University

From “Purifying” the Body Politic to Remembering the Hero: The Killing of Augusto Sandino and its Memorialization in Exile, 1934–56
Susy M. Sánchez, University of Notre Dame

Comment: Victor Uribe Uran, Florida International University

15. New Transnational Histories of the Right in the Americas

Saturday, 8:30-10:00am, Sheraton New York, Carnegie Room West

Chair: Jaime Pensado, University of Notre Dame

"Nosso Terreno": Moral Crisis and Rightwing Evangelicals in the Political Sphere
Benjamin Arthur Cowan, George Mason University

Martial Student Nationalisms: Writings from the Guatemalan Anti-Communist Student Committee, 1950–54
Heather A. Vrana, Southern Connecticut State University

Conservatives beyond Borders, the American-Israeli Case: An Exploratory Study of Transnational Conservative Networks
Noam Gidron, Harvard University

Comment: Lisa McGirr, Harvard University

16. Receptions to the Napoleonic Code and the Cadiz Constitution in the Making of the New American Citizenship

Saturday, 8:30-10:00am, Sheraton New York, Liberty Suite 4

Chair: Beverly David, University of Wisconsin–Stevens Point

From Civil Death to Genocide in Napoleonic Europe: The Erasure of "Noirs, Mulâtres et Autre Gens de Couleur"
Margaret Crosby-Arnold, Columbia University
Against White Supremacy: Blacks and People of Color in the Making of a New Citizenry
Dennis Ricardo Hidalgo, Virginia Tech

White Supremacy and Genocide: The 1937 Haitian Massacre in Fiction and History
Diana Pardo, University of Central Oklahoma

Comment: Sibylle Fischer, New York University

17. New Perspectives on the Spanish Atlantic: The Slave Trade to Spanish America, Part 2 (joint with AHA 120)
Saturday, 10:30-12:00pm, New York Hilton, Beekman Parlor

Chair: Elena Schneider, University of California, Berkeley

“Trading Slaves as If This Port Were Open”: Buenos Aires and the South Atlantic Slave Trade, 1580–1700
Kara Schultz, Vanderbilt University

Enslaved Africans in the Province of Guatemala, 1600–50
Paul Lokken, Bryant University

Urban Slavery in New Spain: A Study on Oaxaca City, 1680–1710
Sabrina Smith, University of California, Los Angeles

Comment: Alex Borucki, University of California, Irvine

18. Ruptures and Continuities in Space and Time: Historical Studies of Science in Latin America (joint with AHA 116)
Saturday, 10:30-12:00pm, New York Hilton, Petit Trianon

Chair: Rick A. Lopez, Amherst College

Depicting Mexican Nature: Science, Visuality, and the Natural World in the Construction of Indigeneity
Rick A. Lopez, Amherst College

Graphic and Narrative Depictions of the Equatorial Andes in Geodesic Science and Landscape Art in the Eighteenth through Twentieth Centuries
Ernesto B. Capello, Macalester College

Truth in Numbers: Shaping the Modern Mexican Nation during the Porfirian Era
Shelley Garrigan, North Carolina State University

Comment: Jordana Dym, Skidmore College
19. Sporting Bodies and Bodies Politic: Gender and Soccer in Latin America (joint with AHA 118)

Saturday, 10:30-12:00pm, New York Hilton, Regent Parlor

Chair: Roger Kittleson, Williams College

Rethinking Masculinities: Argentine Women in Men’s Soccer, 1914–30
Jeffrey Richey, Weber State University

“Ela Vale um Time de Futebol”: Gender, Victory, and Loss in Brazilian World Cup and Miss Universe Press Coverage, 1954–62
Courtney J. Campbell, Institute of Historical Research, School of Advanced Study, University of London

Gravel Pitches and Borrowed Balls: Gender and Women’s Soccer in Mexico City
Joshua Nadel, North Carolina Central University

Comment: Brenda J. Elsey, Hofstra University

20. Agrarian Science, Modernization, Social Engineering, and the Idea of Latin America: Transnational Perspectives from Brazil, Colombia, and the Caribbean

Saturday, 10:30-12:00pm, Sheraton New York, Carnegie Room East

Chair: Jeffrey Needell, University of Florida

“Was It Hatched in Syracuse?” Engineers, Agronomists, and the Making of a Transnational Brazilian Elite, 1868–90
Judy Bieber, University of New Mexico

Enlightened Agriculture: International Science and Agricultural Modernization in the Revista Agrícola de Instituto Fluminense de Agricultura, 1869–89
C. Teresa Cribelli, University of Alabama

Cultivating Racial Democracy: Latin American History from a Tropical Agriculture Institute
Timothy Lorek, Yale University

Comment: Jeffrey Needell, University of Florida

Saturday, 10:30-12:00pm, Sheraton New York, Carnegie Room West

Chair: Benjamin Bryce, University of Toronto

Colonization and State Formation in the Frontier Provinces of Cauca and Antioquia, Colombia, 1825–70
Sebastián Martínez Botero, Universidad de Caldas
'Children of the Great Mexican Family': Anglo-American Immigration to Mexican Texas and the Making of the US Empire
Sarah K. M. Rodríguez, University of Pennsylvania

The Sociedade Promotora da Colonização: International Conjunctures and Ideology-Driven Migrations, 1836–41
José Juan Pérez Meléndez, University of Chicago

A New Poland in South America? The Establishment of the First Polish Colony in Paraná, Brazil, 1860s–70s
Lenny A. Ureña Valerio, University of Michigan

Comment: Benjamin Bryce, University of Toronto

22. Soccer and Society in South America
Saturday, 10:30-12:00pm, Sheraton New York, Liberty Suite 4

Chair: Heather Levi, Temple University

Alex Galarza, Michigan State University

Dual Passions: A History of Fútbol Films in Argentina, 1933–90
Rwany Sibaja, University of Maryland Baltimore County

From Vagrants to Referents of Cultural Change: Colombian Professional Footballers in Medellín, 1960s–70s
Ingrid Bolivar, University of Wisconsin–Madison

A “Public for Export”: Staging the Nation at Argentina’s 1978 World Cup
Jennifer L. Schaefer, Emory University

Comment: Heather Levi, Temple University

CLAH Luncheon
Saturday, 12:15-1:45pm, Sheraton New York, Central Park West

Presentation of CLAH Prizes and Awards

Remarks by Distinguished Service Award recipient Lyman Johnson

Saturday, 2:30-4:30pm, New York Hilton, Bryant Suite

Chair: Willem Klooster, Clark University
Varieties of Trade: A Dutch Merchant in the Rio de la Plata
David Freeman, University of Missouri–Kansas City

Carousing and Trade: Early American Merchants in Surinam
Kim Todt, University of Louisiana at Lafayette

New England–Río de la Plata Connections: Trans-imperial Networks in the Age of Atlantic Revolutions
Fabricio Prado, College of William and Mary

Comment: Alison F. Games, Georgetown University

24. Child of the Nation: The Politics of Childhood during the Cuban Revolution (joint with AHA 133)
Saturday, 2:30-4:30pm, New York Hilton, Madison Suite
Chair: Ada Ferrer, New York University

“To Save Our Children”: The Politics of Childhood in the Anti-Castro Struggle, 1959–62
Anita Casavantes Bradford, University of California, Irvine

From Pioneers to Young Communists: Constructing Childhood in Revolutionary Cuba
Anne Luke, University of Derby

“This Is Why We Fight”: The Cuban Revolution, the Argentine Left, and the Politics of Childhood, 1959–76
James Shrader, University of California, San Diego

The Antonio Maceo Brigade and the Politics of Cuban Émigré Radicalism in 1970s America
Teishan Latner, University of California, Irvine

Comment: Lillian Guerra, University of Florida

25. Silence in the Archives: Transdisciplinary Approaches to Reading Absence in the Latin American Past (joint with AHA 143)
Saturday, 2:30-4:30pm, New York Hilton, Lenox Ballroom
Chair: Karen Graubart, University of Notre Dame

Panel:
Kathryn J. Burns, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
Kittiya Lee, California State University, Los Angeles
María Elena Martínez, University of Southern California
Pete Sigal, Duke University

Saturday, 2:30-4:30pm, Sheraton New York, Carnegie Room East

Chair: Jane G. Landers, Vanderbilt University

Trans-Imperial Bondage: The French Slave Trade in the Early Eighteenth-Century Spanish Caribbean
- Aaron Alejandro Olivas, University of California, Los Angeles

The Slave Trade to the Río de la Plata in the Eighteenth Century
- Alex Borucki, University of California, Irvine

Cuba and the United States in the Atlantic Slave Trade
- Jorge Felipe Gonzalez, Michigan State University
- Marial Iglesias Utset, W.E.B. Du Bois Research Institute, Harvard University

Comment: David Wheat, Michigan State University

27. Cultures of Transnationalism: Social Networks, Solidarities, and Collectives in Latin America

Saturday, 2:30-4:30pm, Sheraton New York, Carnegie Room West

Chair: Alejandra M. Bronfman, University of British Columbia

Cultural Ambassadorship: The Pan-American Games, 1929–79
- Brenda J. Elsey, Hofstra University

Visual Politics of Solidarity: Film and Graphic Art in the Argentine Left’s Struggle against Imperialism and State Repression, 1971–76
- Jessica Stites Mor, University of British Columbia at Okanagan

The Language of Song: Folk Music and Solidarity in the Americas, 1967–74
- Ashley Black, Stony Brook University

The Sound of Latin America: Sandro and the Invention of Latin Pop
- Matthew B. Karush, George Mason University

Comment: Lara E. Putnam, University of Pittsburgh

28. Mapuche Soundscapes: Music, Ethnicity, and National Belonging in Chile and Argentina

Saturday, 2:30-4:30pm, Sheraton New York, Liberty Suite 4

Chair: Ericka Verba, California State University, Dominguez Hills

Perquenco’s Traveling Guitarists: Music and Mapuche Cultural Revival under the Pinochet Dictatorship, 1980–88
- Scott Crago, University of New Mexico
Mingako Kultural: Harvesting Music, Poetry, and Autonomy
Jacob Rekedal, University of California, Riverside

Comment: Karin A. Rosemblatt, University of Maryland at College Park

Borderlands and Frontiers Studies Committee: State, Bordered Communities, and the North-South Dynamic Revisited: Recent Scholarship on the Borderlands of Guatemala and Mexico

Saturday, 6:30-8:00pm, Sheraton New York, Carnegie Room East

Chair: Eric Michael Schantz, independent scholar

National Rhetoric, Local Concerns: The Mexico-Guatemala Border As Seen from the Soconusco
Casey M. Lurtz, University of Chicago

Power on the Border: Dams, Water, and Development along the Guatemalan-Mexican Border
Aaron Margolis, University of Texas at El Paso

De Colonos "Prósperos" a Extranjeros "Reticentes": Rusos Molokanes en Baja California
Rogelio Everth Ruíz Ríos, Universidad Autónoma de Baja California at Tijuana

Estado y Administración de la Naturaleza: Formas Emergentes de Agencia Indígena en la Reserva de la Biosfera Pantanos de Centla
Pablo Marín, Universidad Juárez Autónoma de Tabasco

Comment: The Audience

Chile-Río de la Plata Studies Committee: Atlantic-Pacific Worlds: Rethinking Transnational Paradigms in the Southern Cone

Saturday, 6:30-8:00pm, Sheraton New York, Carnegie Room West

Chair: Camilo Trumper, University at Buffalo (State University of New York)

Speaker(s):
Alex Borucki, University of California, Irvine
Raymond Craib, Cornell University
Erika Edwards, University of North Carolina at Charlotte
Edward Dallam Melillo, Amherst College

Comment: Michael Huner, Grand Valley State University

Hispanic American Historical Review Editorial Board Meeting

Saturday, 6:30-8:00pm, Sheraton New York, Conference Room A
Gran Colombia Studies Committee: Toward a History of Paramilitarism in Colombia
Saturday, 6:30-8:00pm, Sheraton New York, Liberty Suite 3

Chair: Robert Karl, Princeton University

Documenting and Explaining Displacement by Paramilitaries
Abbey Steele, Syracuse University

Paramilitarism and the Politics of Responsibility in Colombia
Winifred Tate, Colby College

The Phoenix Effect; or, Why Colombia Recycles Its War (As Seen through a History of Paramilitarism)
María Teresa Ronderos, VerdadAbierta.com

Comment: Mary J. Roldán, Hunter College

Colonial Studies Committee: Queering the Religious History of the Early Modern Hispanic World
Saturday, 6:30-8:00pm, Sheraton New York, Liberty Suite 4

Chair: Alejandro Cañeque, University of Maryland at College Park

When Objects Speak Lesbian Desire in Convents of the Early Modern Spanish World
Sherry Velasco, University of Southern California

Queering Nahua Religion
Peter Sigal, Duke University

Empire’s Sex Work: Gender and Race Privilege in Colonial Peru’s Inquisition
Rachel Sarah O’Toole, University of California, Irvine

Comment: Linda Curcio-Nagy, University of Nevada, Reno

Brazilian Studies Committee: Writing New Histories of Gender and Sexuality in Brazil
Saturday, 6:30-8:00pm, Sheraton New York, Riverside Suite

Chair: Martha S. Santos, University of Akron

From Representation to Experience: Women’s Reproductive Practices in Rio de Janeiro, 1850–1930
Cassia Paigen Roth, University of California, Los Angeles

Brazilian Desenvolvimentismo and Women: Insights from Gender Analysis
Shawn Moura, University of Maryland at College Park
Comprehending O Bom Combate: Gender, Sexuality, and Reaction in Twentieth-Century Brazil
   Benjamin A. Cowan, George Mason University

Exotic Whiteness: History, Ethnography, and Gay Sexual Tourism in Reverse
   Bryan Pitts, Duke University
   Alvaro Jarrín, College of the Holy Cross

Comment: Sueann Caulfield, University of Michigan

SUNDAY, JANUARY 4

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLAH Information Table</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Sunday, 9:00-11:00am, Sheraton New York, Lobby Level</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

29. Mexico in the Global 1960s (joint with AHA 167)

Sunday, 9:00-11:00am, Sheraton New York, Liberty Suite 5

Chair: Eric Zolov, Stony Brook University

Preparing to Rebel: Growing Up in Mexico City, 1940–70
   Mary Kay Vaughan, University of Maryland at College Park

Student Catholic Radicalism in Cold War Mexico: The Case of the Movimiento Estudiantil Profesional (MEP)
   Jaime Pensado, University of Notre Dame

The 1968 Olympic Games and the Student Movement: Incompatible Realities?
   Ariel Rodriguez Kuri, Colegio de Mexico

Mixtec Youth in Oaxaca: Indigenous Rebels of the Global 1960s
   Alan Shane Dillingham, Reed College

Comment: William Marotti, University of California, Los Angeles

30. Rethinking Territoriality: Indigenous Power in North and South American Borderlands, 1700–1900 (joint with AHA 173)

Sunday, 9:00-11:00am, New York Hilton, Petit Trianon

Chair: Cynthia Radding, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

“We Should Be Obligated to Destroy Them”: Changing Intercultural Diplomacy of the Lower Mississippi Valley, 1699–1775
   Elizabeth Ellis, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
Beyond Dominance and Resistance: Charrúas, Minuanes, and the Making of a Borderline between Brazil and La Plata, 1750–1805
Jeffrey Erbig Jr., University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Redrawing the Frontera Mapuche: Space and Power in the Araucanía, Valdivia, and the Pampas, 1793–1862
Jesse Zarley, University of Maryland at College Park

Indigenous Politics in Northern Patagonia: Reciprocity, Kinship, and Territorial Networks of Power, 1850–80
Geraldine Davies Lenoble, Georgetown University

Comment: Sara Ortelli, National Scientific and Technical Research Council and Universidad Nacional del Centro de la Provincia de Buenos Aires

31. Education in the Nineteenth-Century Americas
Sunday, 9:00-11:00am, Sheraton New York, Carnegie Room East

Chair: G. Antonio Espinoza, Virginia Commonwealth University

Preparing New Ground: Education As Federal Policy in the Territories of the United States, 1867–1912
Nancy Beadie, University of Washington Seattle

Culture Wars in the Trenches: Secular Education versus Catholic Education in the Archbishopric of Mexico in 1885
Margaret Chowning, University of California, Berkeley

Nurturing the Nation: Normal Schools and the Professionalization of Teaching in Nineteenth-Century Boston and Buenos Aires
M. Carolina Zumaglini, Florida International University

“Civilizing the People”: Primary Teachers and the State in Lima, 1860–1921
G. Antonio Espinoza, Virginia Commonwealth University

Comment: Roberta Wollons, University of Massachusetts Boston

32. Local Struggles, Translational Alliances: Labor Movements and International Alliances in Latin America
Sunday, 9:00-11:00am, Sheraton New York, Carnegie Room West

Chair: Barbara Weinstein, New York University

Abundance Won’t Return This Year: Argentine and Bolivian Workers, Nationalist Revolutions, and the Muddy Grounds of Perón’s Ambitions of Regional Leadership
Ernesto Semán, New York University
"International Solidarity Is the Best Way of Achieving the Workers' Aspirations": Chilean and Argentine Workers and the Struggle over Gath and Chaves, 1951–52
Angela Vergara, California State University, Los Angeles

Ties that Bind: Working Class Solidarity during the 1954 Banana Strike in Honduras
Suyapa Portillo, Pitzer College

Comment: Barbara Weinstein, New York University

33. Memory Studies and the Historian: Cases from Chile under Augusto Pinochet to the Present (joint with AHA 200)
Sunday, 11:30-1:30pm, New York Hilton, Concourse B

Chair: Karin A. Rosemblatt, University of Maryland at College Park

Alison J. Bruey, University of North Florida

Women, Gender, and Memories on the Margins in Valparaíso, 1973–2012
Brandi A. Townsend, University of Maryland at College Park

Crafting Indigenous Oral Histories: Social Scientists and Non-government Organizations in the Production of Oral Archives and Sources in Chile, 1990–2011
Claudio Javier Barrientos, Diego Portales University

Minor Characters: Childhood in Pinochet’s Chile in Fiction and Film
Marian E. Schlotterbeck, University of California, Davis

Comment: Steve J. Stern, University of Wisconsin–Madison

34. Mexican Artists at the Disciplinary Crossroads (joint with AHA 201)
Sunday, 11:30-1:30pm, New York Hilton, Concourse F

Chair: Mary Kay Vaughan, University of Maryland at College Park

Art and the Creation of Mexico’s Communist Party
Stephanie Smith, Ohio State University

Writing History “Against the Grain” of History: Walter Benjamin and Jose Clemente Orozco’s Epic of American Civilization
Mary Coffey, Dartmouth College

Frida Kahlo’s Self-Fashioning in Art and Life: Making Trouble, Third Gender, Third Space
Adriana Zavala, Tufts University

Queerly Mexican: Art, Identity, and the LGBTQ Movement in Mexico
Edward McCaughan, San Francisco State University
35. The Ground Below and Above: New Directions in the Study of Mining in the Colonial Americas (joint with Labor and Working Class History Association 207)

Sunday, 11:30-1:30pm, New York Hilton, Petit Trianon

Chair: Allison Bigelow, University of Virginia

The Impact of Colonial Latin American Mining: For the Global Economy and for the Environment
   Kendall Brown, Brigham Young University

Mining Exploration and the Limits of Empire in Colonial Brazil
   Hal Langfur, University at Buffalo (State University of New York)

Taking the Enlightenment Underground: Mapping Mining Spaces in the Late Colonial Andes
   Heidi Scott, University of Massachusetts Amherst

Revisiting Silver Mining and Its Many Societies in New Spain
   Dana Velasco Murillo, University of California, San Diego

Comment: Kris E. Lane, Tulane University

36. When the Guns Stop Roaring: Remembering Conflict in Latin America

Sunday, 11:30-1:30pm, Sheraton New York, Carnegie Room East

Chair: Uri Rosenheck, Coastal Carolina University

Constructing an Official Memory of Colombia’s Civil War: An Analysis of the Centro Nacional De Memoria Historica
   Brett Troyan, State University of New York at Cortland

   Elizabeth Molnar, University of Pittsburgh

I Will Return and I Will Be Millions: Vernacular and State-Sponsored Memorials to Argentina’s Desaparecidos
   Patrice Elizabeth Olsen, Illinois State University

Spatial Memories: World War II Monuments in Brazil and the Geography of Oblivion
   Uri Rosenheck, Coastal Carolina University

Comment: Paulo Drinot, University College London
37. Connections and Disconnections between the Americas in the Long Nineteenth Century

Sunday, 11:30-1:30pm, Sheraton New York, Carnegie Room West

Chair: Caitlin A. Fitz, Northwestern University

Envisioning Latin America: Intellectual Practices of Difference in America’s Fin de Siècle
Franz Hensel-Riveros, University of Texas at Austin

The Other Hemispheric Revolution: Neutral Commerce between Venezuela and the United States, c. 1797–1810
Edward Pompeian, University of Mary Washington

Black Freedom in the Urban Americas: Free People of Color, Organizational Membership, and Social Distinction in Charleston and Cartagena
John Garrison Marks, Rice University

Comment: Mariana L. Dantas, Ohio University

38. Indigenous Citizens before the Indigenous Movements in Latin America

Sunday, 11:30-1:30pm, Sheraton New York, Liberty Suite 4

Chair: Laura Gotkowitz, University of Pittsburgh

Trying Testimonies: The Liberal-Aymara Alliance in the 1899 Civil War
E. Gabrielle Kuenzli, University of South Carolina Columbia

Indigenous Constituents in the White Republic: Costa Rica, 1910–40
Alejandra Boza, Universidad de Costa Rica

How to Fight Like an Indian
Marc Becker, Truman State University

Land for Those Who Work It? Or Land for Its Original Owners?
Carmen Soliz, University of North Carolina at Charlotte

Comment: James Sanders, Utah State University

Sunday, 2:30-4:30pm, New York Hilton, Murray Hill Suite A

Chair: Anita Rupprecht, University of Brighton

“Traders in Chains and the Enslaved Set Free”: The Transatlantic Slave Trade Turned Upside Down and What Happened Next
Emma Christopher, University of Sydney
Foreign Policy and Slave Trade: The Courts of Mixed Commission and Their Role in Implementing Abolition in Havana and Rio de Janeiro
Jennifer Nelson, University of Leeds

The Juan Francisco Cascales’ Registers of Liberated Africans from the Havana Mixed Commission, 1827–36
Henry B. Lovejoy, University of British Columbia

“Crimes Committed by the Captain and Crew”: Race, Ethnicity, Nationality, and Culpability on a Nineteenth-Century Illegal Slave Ship Voyage
Laura Rosanne Adderley, Tulane University

Comment: Jane G. Landers, Vanderbilt University

40. Latino Radicalisms, 1930s–70s (joint with AHA 226)
Sunday, 2:30-4:30pm, New York Hilton, Conference Room F

Chair: Aldo Lauria Santiago, Rutgers University–New Brunswick

The World That Jesus Colon Almost Built: Pan-Latino Radicalism, Puerto Rican Nationalism, and the Maturing of a Latino Working Class in New York City, 1930–50
Aldo Lauria Santiago, Rutgers University–New Brunswick

Gaining Access through Protest Politics: The Black and Puerto Rican Construction Workers Coalition
Rose Muzio, College at Old Westbury (State University of New York)

Revolutions Lost and Found: Migration and the Meanings of Race and Cross-Ethnic Membership in the Young Lords Party
Johanna Fernandez, Baruch College, City University of New York

Latina/o Anticolonial Struggles and the Commission on Hispanic Affairs of the Episcopal Church
Michael Staudenmaier, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Comment: Lorrin Thomas, Rutgers University–Camden

41. Whispers in the Archive: Rumor and Gossip as Primary Sources (joint with AHA 237)
Sunday, 2:30-4:30pm, New York Hilton, Conference Room F

Chair: Lauren (Robin) Derby, University of California, Los Angeles

“Words Not Fit for the Writing”: Rumor and Popular Politics in Late-Mughal Delhi, 1700–40
Abhishek Kaicker, University of California, Berkeley
Personal Politics and the Politics of the Personal: Innuendo, Gossip, and Networking in Eighteenth- and Nineteenth-Century Beijing
Andrea S. Goldman, University of California, Los Angeles

Oral Pleasures, Neighbors’ Tongues: Stories of Transgendering Avant la Lettrein Buenos Aires, 1902–30
Mir Yarfitz, Wake Forest University

Specters of Marx, Hegel, and Columbus Too: Haunting and Historicity in the Haitian-Dominican Borderlands
Lauren (Robin) Derby, University of California, Los Angeles

Comment: Lynn A. Hunt, University of California, Los Angeles

---

42. Whither Ethnohistory? Writing Indigenous History across Disciplinary and Other Boundaries (joint with AHA 238)

Sunday, 2:30-4:30pm, New York Hilton, Petit Trianon

Chair: Laura Matthew, Marquette University

Panel:
- Héctor Concohá Chet, Plumsock Mesoamerican Studies and Universidad Rafael Landivar
- Janine Gasco, California State University, Dominguez Hills
- Stacie M. King, Indiana University Bloomington
- Sergio Romero, University of Texas at Austin
- Frauke Sachse, University of Bonn

---

43. Toward a Global History of Sexual Science, c. 1900-70, Part 1: Global Transfers of Sexual Knowledge: Dubbing, Appropriations, and Translations (joint with Society for Advancing the History of South Asia and Committee on Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender History 241)

Sunday, 2:30-4:30pm, New York Hilton, Murray Hill Suite B

Chair: Veronika Fuechtner, Dartmouth College

The Rise of Global Scientia Sexualis: Dubbing and the Epistemologies of Sexual Science throughout the World, c. 1900
Pablo E. Ben, San Diego State University

The “Ellis Effect”: Translating Sexual Science in Republican China, 1911–49
Douglas E. Haynes, Dartmouth College

Translating Havelock Ellis in Republican China, 1910s–1940s
Rachel Hui-Chi Hsu, Johns Hopkins University

Comment: Howard Chiang, University of Warwick
44. Public Health Concerns in the Aftermath of Disaster: Perspectives from Colonial and Modern Latin America

Sunday, 2:30-4:30pm, Sheraton New York, Carnegie Room East

Chair: Teresita Levy, Lehman College, City University of New York

Earthquakes, Typhus, and the Cultural Construction of Colonial Medicine in Late-Colonial Central America
  Martha Few, University of Arizona

State and Public Health Responses to Natural Disasters: Earthquakes in Argentina and Chile, 1835–1939
  Quinn Dauer, Indiana University Southeast

Treating Burns and Reducing Fire Risk: Hygiene Experts and the Fight against Fire Hazards in Mexico City, 1870–1910
  Anna Alexander, Georgia Southern University

Hurricanes, Public Health, and Citizenship under Empire and Dictatorship: A Comparative Analysis of Puerto Rico and the Dominican Republic during the Great Depression
  Geoff Burrows, City University of New York, Graduate Center

Comment: Mark Healey, University of Connecticut

45. Revisiting Development in Twentieth-Century Peru

Sunday, 2:30-4:30pm, Sheraton New York, Carnegie Room West

Chair: Charles F. Walker, University of California, Davis

Roads to Progress: Public Perceptions of Highway Construction in Peru, 1920–30
  Mark Rice, Baruch College

Revisiting Stagnation: An Urban Environmental History of Iquitos between the Rubber Boom and the Oil Boom, 1920–70
  Adrián Lerner, Yale University

“Popular Participation Is Revolution”: Development through Organized Self-Help in Revolutionary Peru
  Helen Gyger, Pratt Institute

Attacking Power in Peru: Blackouts, Technology, and Shining Path Violence
  Willie Hiatt, Long Island University Post

Comment: Charles F. Walker, University of California, Davis
46. Frontiers of Blackness in Argentina, Colombia, and the Circum-Caribbean, 1810–1930

Sunday, 2:30-4:30pm, Sheraton New York, Liberty Suite 4

Chair: Anne Eller, Yale University

A Talented Tenth; or, A Functional Majority: Education and African Descendants in Cordoba, Argentina 1810–53
Erika Edwards, University of North Carolina at Charlotte

Neither Colombian nor Jamaican: A Perspective from the Caribbean Islands of San Andrés and Providencia
Sharika D. Crawford, U.S. Naval Academy

From a Mulato Caribbean to a Black Pacific: Changing Locations of Racialization in Nineteenth- and Twentieth-Century Colombia
Jason Peter McGraw, Indiana University Bloomington

Comment: Herman Bennett, City University of New York, Graduate Center

Andean Studies Committee

Sunday, 5:30-7:00pm, Sheraton New York, Carnegie Room East

Chair: Heidi Scott, University of Massachusetts Amherst

Comfortably Compound, Dangerously Middle: Nascence and Change in the Andes (and Beyond)
Kenneth R. Mills, University of Toronto

Teaching and Teaching Materials Committee: Teaching Latin America in the "Global Sixties"

Sunday, 5:30-7:00pm, Sheraton New York, Carnegie Room West

Chair: Jessica Stites Mor, University of British Columbia at Okanagan

Speaker(s):
Christine Hatzky, Leibniz Universität Hannover
Marc Hertzman, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign
Jessica Stites Mor, University of British Columbia at Okanagan
Margaret Power, Illinois Institute of Technology
Eric Zolov, Stony Brook University

The Americas Editorial Board Meeting

Sunday, 5:30-7:00pm, Sheraton New York, Conference Room A

Caribbean Studies Committee: Gender and the Caribbean Archive

Sunday, 5:30-7:00pm, Sheraton New York, Liberty Suite 4

Chair: Marisa Fuentes, Rutgers University–New Brunswick
Speaker(s):
Yvonne Fabella, University of Pennsylvania
Aisha K. Finch, University of California, Los Angeles
Natasha Lightfoot, Columbia University
Nicole Saffold Maskiell, Cornell University
Katherine Paugh, University of Wisconsin–Milwaukee
Sasha Turner, Quinnipiac University

Central American Studies Committee: New Directions: Transnational and Interdisciplinary Histories of Central America

Sunday, 5:30-7:00pm, Sheraton New York, Liberty Suite 5

Chair: Heather Abdelnur, Georgia Regents University

Signs of Life: Mesoamerican and Colonial Medical Cultures in Enlightenment Guatemala
Martha Few, University of Arizona

Oral History Project, Latin America
David Carey Jr., University of Southern Maine

Rethinking Regions: Trade and Migration along the Southern Pacific Coast
Laura Matthew, Marquette University

Chapinismos: Producing the Local and Everyday Life in Late Capitalist Latin America
J.T. Way, Georgia State University

Mexican Studies Committee: New Directions in Mexican History

Sunday, 5:30-7:00pm, Sheraton New York, Riverside Suite

Chair: David E. Tavárez, University of Chicago

Nahua Cultural History Studied across Disciplinary Boundaries
Justyna Olko, University of Warsaw

Change and Cultural Continuity as Object and Method of Study in Colonial Indigenous Documents
Michel Oudijk, Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México

Studies of Race in Colonial Mexico
María Elena Martínez, University of Southern California

New Directions in Borderlands History; or, Strategies for Transgressing the Nation-State
José Angel Hernández, University of Massachusetts Amherst

CLAH Cocktail Reception

Sunday, 7:00-9:00pm, Sheraton New York, Central Park West
MONDAY, JANUARY 5

47. “The New Conquest History”: New Approaches to the Spanish Conquest of Mexico (joint with AHA 267)

Monday, 8:30-10:30am, New York Hilton, Bryant Suite

Chair: Stuart B. Schwartz, Yale University

Panel:
Michel Oudijk, Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México
Maria Castaneda de la Paz, Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México
Matthew Restall, Pennsylvania State University
John Schwaller, University at Albany (State University of New York)
Stephanie Wood, University of Oregon

Comment: Camilla D. Townsend, Rutgers University–New Brunswick

Monday, 8:30-10:30am, New York Hilton, Nassau Suite B

Chair: Matt D. Childs, University of South Carolina Columbia

The Atlantic Slave Trade in the Bight of Benin in the Age of Abolition
Olatunji Ojo, Brock University

Innovation and Entrepreneurship as Strategies for Success among Havana-Based Slave Trading Firms after 1820
Effie Kesidou, University of Leeds
Manuel Barcia, University of Leeds

Atlantic Slavery and the Hidden Atlantic: Slaves Trades and the Smuggling of Human Bodies (Negreros, Captains, Crews, and Personnel) in the Nineteenth Century
Michael Zeuske, University of Cologne

Agricultural Slight of Hand: Cuban Plantations as Fronts for the Illegal Trade in African Slaves
William C. Van Norman, James Madison University

Comment: David Eltis, Emory University

49. “Asia” in Latin America: Migration, Diaspora, and Identity in Brazil and Cuba (joint with AHA 247)

Monday, 8:30-10:30am, New York Hilton, Clinton Suite

Chair: Georgette Magassy Dorn, Library of Congress
A “New China” in Brazil: The Chinese Imperial Court’s Shifting Attitudes on Immigration during the Late Nineteenth Century
Eric Vanden Bussche, Stanford University

Decline and Revival of an Ethnic Space: Havana’s Chinatown since the 1959 Cuban Revolution
Yinghong Cheng, Delaware State University

Japanese Immigration to Brazil: Historical Memory, Representation, and Japanese Brazilian Identity in São Paulo
Mieko Nishida, Hartwick College

Comment: Georgette Magassy Dorn, Library of Congress

Monday, 8:30-10:30am, New York Hilton, Sutton Center

Chair: Douglas E. Haynes, Dartmouth College

Freud, the Global Sexual Scientist
Veronika Fuechtner, Dartmouth College

Normalizing the Deviant: Mexican Sexology and Homosexuality, 1860–1960
Ryan Jones, State University of New York at Geneseo

International Networks across the Atlantic: Latin Eugenics and Sexual Knowledge in Italy and Argentina, 1916–46
Chiara Beccalossi, Oxford Brookes University

Comment: Chris Waters, Williams College

51. Insurgent Ethnographers: Studying Race and Culture from the Outside In (Brazil, the Caribbean, and the United States, 1890s–1960s)

Monday, 8:30-10:30am, Sheraton New York, Liberty Suite 3

Chair: Marc Adam Hertzman, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Records of the Sonic Exotic
Alejandra M. Bronfman, University of British Columbia

Visual Artifacts and Ontological Transformation among Cottica Ndyuka in Suriname
Olivia Maria Gomes da Cunha, Museu Nacional, Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro
52. Transnational Transcripts in South America’s Cold War of the 1960s

Monday, 8:30-10:30 am, Sheraton New York, Liberty Suite 4

Chair: Teresa A. Meade, Union College (New York)

Argentina: Cuba and the Rise of Armed Revolution
Jonathan Brown, University of Texas at Austin

Chile and Peru: Universities and the Cold War, Peace Corps Volunteers, and Their Transnational Experiences in South America
Fernando Purcell, Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile

Bolivia: A Splintering Left and the Failure of Armed Struggle, 1963–65
Thomas C. Field, Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University

The Transnational Diffusion of Anti-Communism: Conservative Women in Brazil, Chile, and the United States
Margaret M. Power, Illinois Institute of Technology

Comment: Teresa A. Meade, Union College (New York)

53. Solidarity and Revolution: Transnational Perspectives on Latin American and Caribbean Radical History

Monday, 8:30-10:30 am, Sheraton New York, Liberty Suite 5

Chair: Evan Matthew Daniel, Queens College

Black Flag and Caribbean Red: Anarchist Antiauthoritarian Networks in the Caribbean, 1890s–1930s
Kirwin Shaffer, Pennsylvania State University at Berks College

Transnational Solidarity in the Americas: The Campaign in Support of the Sandino Movement in Nicaragua, 1927–34
Barry Carr, La Trobe University
“We Could No Longer Do This Work as Separate Entities”: Transnational Solidarity in the Puerto Rican Diaspora, 1975–85
Michael Staudenmaier, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Comment: Evan Matthew Daniel, Queens College

54. At the Hour of Our Death: Reinterpreting Illness in Iberian Empires (joint with AHA 274)
Monday, 11:00-1:00pm, New York Hilton, Bryant Suite
Chair: Verónica A. Gutiérrez, Azusa Pacific University

The Limits of a Moral Imagination: Disease and Explanation in Colonial Brazil, 1549–68
Hugh Cagle, University of Utah

Indians, Epidemics, and Colonial Mexico’s Theater of Death
Erika R. Hosselkus, Southeast Missouri State University

Death, Judgment, Heaven, and Franciscan Habits: The Art of Dying in Late Sixteenth-Century Spanish-Indigenous Cholula
Verónica A. Gutiérrez, Azusa Pacific University

Entre Enfermedad y Pecado: Idolatry and Disease in Colonial Yucatán
Ryan Kashanipour, Northern Arizona University

Comment: Adam W. V. Warren, University of Washington Seattle

55. Reexamining the Illegal Slave Trade in the Nineteenth-Century Atlantic, Part 3:
Kidnapping and Illegal Enslavement in the Nineteenth-Century Atlantic World (joint with AHA 296)
Monday, 11:00-1:00pm, New York Hilton, Gramercy Suite B
Chair: Sharla M. Fett, Occidental College

Illegal Enslavement and International Law in the Southern Borders of South America in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Centuries
Keila Grinberg, Universidade Federal do Estado do Rio de Janeiro

Kidnapping, Slavery, and the Politics of Interregional Cooperation in the Early United States
Richard Bell, University of Maryland at College Park

West African Intellectuals and the Problem of Illegal Enslavement in the Nineteenth Century
Jennifer Lofkrantz, State University of New York at Geneseo

Illegal Slave Trade, Individual Identification, and Rights in Nineteenth-Century Brazil
Beatriz Mamigonian, Universidade Federal de Santa Catarina
56. Methods of Modernity from the Margins: Toward New Theories of Africa and/in the Americas (joint with AHA 284)

Monday, 11:00-1:00pm, New York Hilton, Gramercy Suite B

Chair: Stephan Palmié, University of Chicago

The Elephant and the Castle: Kingship and Coinage in Britain and West Africa, 1663–1726
Andrew Apter, University of California, Los Angeles

Fugitive Modernities, Spirit Biographies, and the Transatlantic Politics of Reputation: Angola and the Americas in the Seventeenth Century
Jessica Krug, George Washington University

Archipelagos of Insurrection: Slave Revolt and the Geographic Imagination
Vincent Brown, Harvard University

Comment: Stephan Palmié, University of Chicago

57. Toward a Global History of Sexual Science, c. 1900-70, Part 3: Local Sexologies in a Global Context (joint with Committee on Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender History and Society for Advancing the History of South Asia 297)

Monday, 11:00-1:00pm, New York Hilton, Nassau Suite B

Chair: Ryan Jones, State University of New York at Geneseo

“Forms So Attenuated That They Merge into Normality Itself”: Alexander Lipschütz, Gregorio Marañón, and Theories of Intersexuality in Chile, c. 1930
Kurt MacMillan, University of California, Irvine

Sexual Deviance between Biological and Social Causation: International Approaches and Czechoslovak Sexology in the 1960s and 1970s
Katerina Liskova, Masaryk University

Time for Sex: Kaam-Discipline and the Conduct of Childhood in Global/Hindu Sexology
Ishita Pande, Queen's University

58. Historical Pasts and Futures in Colonial Mexico

Monday, 11:00-1:00pm, Sheraton New York, Liberty Suite 3

Chair: Peter B. Villella, University of North Carolina at Greensboro

“They Did Not Die until They Were Old”: Remembering Health and Wellness in Sixteenth-Century Mexico
Peter B. Villella, University of North Carolina at Greensboro
Visions of the Future in Sixteenth-Century New Spain
Matthew D. O’Hara, University of California, Santa Cruz

Doomsday Preppers: Signs, Warnings, and Descriptions of the Apocalypse in Nahuatl and Maya Texts
Mark Zinn Christensen, Assumption College

Comment: David E. Tavárez, Vassar College

---

59. The "República de Indios" and the Formation of a Legal Culture in Spanish America

Monday, 11:00-1:00pm, Sheraton New York, Liberty Suite 4

Chair: Alcira Dueñas, Ohio State University at Newark

Rhetoric and Strategy in Early Colonial Andean Litigation, 1552–74
Renzo Honores, High Point University

Space Management in the Indian Pueblo: Indigenous Officeholders and Their Legal Practice
Alcira Dueñas, Ohio State University at Newark

Merida’s Maya Cabildos in the Age of Independence: Language, Landholding, and the Law, 1790–1830
Mark Lentz, Utah Valley University

On the Road to Justice: Indigenous Communities and the Colonial Legal System in Late-Eighteenth Century Altiplano
Victor Maqué, University of Notre Dame

---

60. Sport, Race, and Gender in Latin America

Monday, 11:00-1:00pm, Sheraton New York, Liberty Suite 5

Chair: Stephen D. Allen, Boise State University

“It’s More Important Than the Oil”: Eugenics, the Ejidal Leagues, and the Federalization of Campesino Sport in Revolutionary Mexico, 1921–40
David Wysocki, University of Arizona

“The Champion without a Crown”: Remembering Rodolfo Casanova and Mexico’s First Golden Age of Boxing
Stephen D. Allen, Boise State University

Presidente, Madrina, Pelotero, Demócrata, Comunista, Madre: The Dominican Family at the Ballpark
April Yoder, University of New Haven

Comment: Anne Rubenstein, York University