
THE CONFERENCE ON LATIN AMERICAN HISTORY
in affiliation with The American Historical Association

Program of CLAH Activities and Latin American Sessions
2022 Annual Meeting ,
New Orleans, LA, January 6-9

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

General Committee Meeting:

Thursday, January 6, 2022: 5:00 PM-7:00 PM

Maurepas Room (Sheraton New Orleans, 3rd Floor)

CLAH Luncheon:

Friday, January 7, 2022: 12:00 PM-1:30 PM

Armstrong Ballroom (Sheraton New Orleans, 8th Floor)

CLAH OFFICERS

Executive Committee:

President: Ben Vinson III
Vice President: Celso Castilho
Past President: Bianca Premo
Executive Directors: Jürgen Buchenau & Erika Edwards

General Committee

Elected Members:

Eileen Findlay (2020-2021)

David Carey (2020-2021)

Maria Barreiros (2020-2022)

Danielle Terrazas Willimas (2020-2022)

Tamara Walker (2020-2022)

Ex-Officio Members:

HHR Editors: Martha Few, Matthew Restall, Amara Solari, Zachary Morgan

The Americas Editor: John F. Schwaller

H-LatAm Editor: Marc Becker

2019 Program Committee:

Thomas Rogers (2021 chair)

Sharika Crawford (2022 chair)

Jesse Zarley

CLAH Information Table

Thursday, January 6, 2022: 12:30PM-5:00PM
Bayside Foyer (Sheraton New Orleans, 4th)

Friday, January 7, 2022: 8:00 AM-11:30 AM
Bayside Foyer (Sheraton New Orleans, 4th)

1. Commodity Extraction and Indigenous Mobilization in Colonial to 21st-Century Latin America (Joint session with AHA #36)

Thursday, January 6, 2022: 3:30 PM-5:00 PM
Napoleon Ballroom C1 (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: James Mestaz, Central State University

Papers:

Our Water, Our Identity: Indigenous Combatants in the CNC and CTM "Water War"
James Mestaz, Central State University

Jurisdiction, Justice, and the Evolution of Mesoamerican Forestry Practice in Early New Spain
Christopher Wooley, University of North Carolina at Pembroke

The Prehistory of Extractivism: State Paternalism and Indigenous Mobilization in the Ecuadorian Amazon before "La Realidad Petrolera"

William Fischer, Missouri Southern State University

"We Marched for This Consultation": Exploiting the Indigenous Right to Free, Prior, and Informed Consultation in Defense of Bolivia's Territorio Indígena y Parque Nacional Isiboro Sécuré

Leah A. Walton, University of North Carolina at Charlotte

Comment: German Vergara, Georgia Institute of Technology

2. Identity Construction and Social Hierarchies in Argentina and Chile from the 19th to 20th Centuries (Joint session with AHA #45)

Thursday, January 6, 2022: 3:30 PM-5:00 PM
Napoleon Ballroom B3 (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Hannah Greenwald, Yale University

Papers:

Fathers on the Frontier: Rape, Fatherhood, and State Power in Northern Patagonia
Javier Cikota, Bowdoin College

A Firm Handshake at the Apex of the Andes: Argentine-Chilean Relations and Indigenous Resistance in the Southern Andes
Hannah Greenwald, Yale University

Chileanization and Whitening in 19th-Century Argentina

Kyle Edmund Harvey, Western Carolina University

Constructing Marital Whiteness: Memory, National Identity, and El Roto Chileno

Sarah Walsh, University of Melbourne

Comment: Angeles Picone, Boston College

3. CLAH General Committee Meeting

Thursday, January 6, 2022: 5:00 PM-7:00 PM

Maurepas Room (Sheraton New Orleans)

CLAH Information Table

Friday, January 7, 2022: 8:00 AM-11:30 AM

Bayside Foyer (Sheraton New Orleans)

4. Politics and Public Square in 20th-Century Latin America

Friday, January 7, 2022: 8:30 AM-10:00 AM

Bayside Ballroom A (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Bonar Hernández, Iowa State University

Papers:

“Equipotancia y Complementaridad”: Propuestas

de Concha Michel Hacia un Programa de la Transformación Social Para la Mujer en México Blanca Nunez, University of California, Riverside

The Enduring Significance of the 1930s for Chile's Long Cold War
John Bawden, University of Montevallo

Lived Religion, Socioeconomic Development, and the Origins of Social Activism in Guatemala during the Cold War
Bonar Hernández, Iowa State University

Negotiating the Public Sphere: Cuban Print Media and the Politics of the Press, 1940-52
Richard Denis, Florida International University

Comment: The Audience

5. Reproducing the Nation: Midwives, Mothers, and Citizenship across the Americas (Joint session with AHA #83)

Friday, January 7, 2022: 10:30 AM-12:00 AM
Rhythms Ballroom 3 (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Hanni Jalil, California State University, Channel Islands

Papers:

Between the Law and the Birthing Room: Medical Legislation and Midwife Certification in New Mexico, 1880-1940

Gianna May Sanchez, University of Michigan, Ann

Arbor

Mothers and Healthy Children: Puericulture and Motherhood in Colombia, 1900-40

Hanni Jalil, California State University, Channel Islands

Birthing the Children of the Revolution: The Practice of Midwifery in Mexico City, 1920-40

Jethro Hernandez Berrones, Southwestern University

Comment: Natalie Kimball, College of Staten Island, City University of New York

6. Engendering the History of Latin American Capitalism: Women and Men in Brazilian and Cuban Commodity Export Regions, 1880-1960

Friday, January 7, 2022: 10:30 AM-12:00 AM

Bayside Ballroom A (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Ryan Edwards, Princeton University

Papers:

Sugar Workers, Planters, Industrialists, and Their Wives in São Paulo, 1880-1950

Gillian A. McGillivray, Glendon College at York University

The Rural Workers Union in Campos dos Goytacazes and Gender Relations on the Sugar

Economy, 1938-64

Leonardo Soares dos Santos, Universidade
Federal Fluminense

“Tasks Typical of Her Sex”: Women’s Work and Household Economic Strategies in the Early 20th-Century Cuban Sugar Industry

Marc C. McLeod, Seattle University

A “Grapiuna Nation?” Sergipano Migrant Masculinity and the Formation of a Regional Identity: Brazil’s Cacao Region, 1870-1920

Mary Ann Mahony, Central Connecticut State
University

Comment: Eileen J. Findlay, American University

7. Death and the Dead in Latin America

Friday, January 7, 2022: 10:30 AM-12:00 AM

Byside Ballroom A (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chairs: Juan Jose Ponce Vazquez, University of Alabama at Tuscaloosa

Bethany Wade, Rutgers University-New Brunswick

Papers:

Walking with the Dead: Remains, Ghosts, and Memory in 15th-Century Spanish-Taíno Encounters

Lauren MacDonald, Idaho State University

Counting the Dead: Records of the Deceased in the Cathedral of Santo Domingo, 1666-76- A

Preliminary Analysis

Juan Jose Ponce Vazquez, University of Alabama at Tuscaloosa

Quarantining the Dead: Bodiless Funerals in the 19th-Century Caribbean

Bethany Wade, Rutgers University- New Brunswick

Lovingly Caring for the Dead: Postmortem Examinations, Decomposition, Cadaveric Fauna, and Violence in Colombia

Julia Alejandra Morales Fontanilla, Rutgers University-New Brunswick

8. Lifting Silences: From Afro-Andean Rebels and Black and Indigenous Conquerors and Cacicas to Little-Known Farmers, Servants, and Slaves

Friday, January 7, 2022: 10:30 AM-12:00 AM

Bayside Ballroom A (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chairs: José Carlos de la Puente, Texas State University

Papers:

Shadowy Figures and Ghost Landscapes:

Visualizing the Contributions of Indigenous and African Actors to the Spanish Invasion, 1532-37

Jeremy Mikecz, Neukom Institute for Computation
Science at Dartmouth College

The Invention of an Interethnic Landscape in Early

Colonial Peru, 1560-70

Damian A. Gonzalez Escudero, Max Planck
Institute for Legal History and Legal Theory

Blacks in the Inka's City: Residence, Work, and Escape in Cuzco, 1531-1690

Leo J. Garofalo, Connecticut College

*Afro-Peruvians, Native Andeans, and the Population History of the Acari and Yauca Valleys:
Peru in the Colonial Era*

David Earle, Antelope Valley College

Comment: Michelle McKinley, University of Oregon

9. CLAH Luncheon

Friday, January 7, 2022: 12:00 PM-1:30 AM

Armstrong Ballroom (Sheraton New Orleans)

10. Abolition, Emancipation, and SLavery Debates across the Mediterranean World: Italy, Spain, Portugal, Brazil (Joint session with AHA #105)

Friday, January 7, 2022: 1:30 PM-3:00 PM

Rhythms Ballroom 3 (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Andrew J. Kirkendall Texas A&M University

Papers:

Intellectual and Legal Abolitionism in the Italian

States, 1750-1889

Giulia Bonazza, Columbia university

“La Vergognosa Piaga”: Atlantic Slavery and Race from/in the Italian States, 1815-61

Marco Mariano, UNiversity of Turin

Comment: Clément Thibaud, L'École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales

11. Reading Race and Racial Hierarchies in Visual Sources from Latin America (Joint session with AHA #107)

Friday, January 7, 2022: 1:30 PM-3:00 PM

Rhythms Ballroom 2 (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Rebekah E. Pite, Lafayette College

Papers:

Mexico City's Alameda as a Racialized Space in New Spanish Painting

Elena FitzPatrick Sifford, Muhlenberg College

Portrait of Francisco De Paula Sanz: Race, Art Production, and Power in Late-Colonial Spanish America

Tamara J. Walker, University of Toronto

Visualizing Race and Yerba Mate Hierarchies in Would-be Nations of the Río de la Plata, 1810-61

Rebekah E. Pite, Lafayette College

Struggles to Appear: Afro-Colombian Men and the Technologies of Inclusion in Early 20th-Century Colombia

Luisa Fernanda Arrieta, University of Connecticut at Storrs

Comment: The Audience

12. Blackness in Early Latin American Archives, Part 1: Blackness in Early Latin American Archives I (Joint session with AHA #117)

Friday, January 7, 2022: 1:30 PM-3:00 PM

Grand Ballroom B(Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: James H. Sweet, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Panel:

Herman L. Bennet, The Graduate Center of the City University of New York

Pablo F. Gómez, University of Wisconsin-Madison;

Karen Graubart, University of Notre Dame

Mary E. Hicks, Amherst College

Chloe Ireton, University College London

13. Tricornia and the Construction of a Modern Cuba: Liberalism, Race, and Public Health in Early 20th-Century Cuba (Joint session with AHA #131)

Friday, January 7, 2022: 3:30 PM-5:00 PM
Southdown Room Floor 4 (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Kathleen López, Rutgers University-New Brunswick

Papers:

Tricornia and the Revolution of Border and Migratory Control in Cuba under the US Military Occupation

Ahmed Correa Alvarez, University of California, Merced

Immigration Control as Race-Making and Nation-Building in Occupation and Early Republic Cuba

Kent Weber, Dartmouth College

“As Homogenous as Possible”: Immigration, Tricornia, and the Construction of Liberal Modernity in Early 20th-Century Cuba

John T. Ermer Jr., Florida International University

Comment: The Audience

14. Blackness in Early Latin American Archives, Part 2: Blackness in Early Latin American Archives II (Joint session with AHA #142)

Friday, January 7, 2022: 3:30 PM-5:00 PM
Grand Ballroom B (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Ben Vinson III, Case Western Reserve University

Panel:

Adriana Chira, Emory University
Michelle McKinley, University of Oregon
Bianca Premo, Florida International University
Danielle Terrazas Williams, Oberlin College
Tamara J. Walker, University of Toronto

15. Inverting Metanarratives of Modernization and Rural “Backwardness” in Latin America

Friday, January 7, 2022: 3:30 PM-5:00 PM
Bayside Ballroom A (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Marixa A. Lasso, Panama Ministry of Culture

Papers:

Flipping the Script: Reinstating Neighborhood Voices in Modern Urban Projects in 1920s Mexico
Christina M. Jimenez, University of Colorado
Colorado Springs

Inverting Metanarratives about Western Health Practices in the Maya Highlands
Susan R. Fitzpatrick Behrens, California State University, Northridge

From Celebrated to Subversive: Competing Modernities in the Ixcán, Guatemala
Sarah Foss, Oklahoma State University

Comment: Marixa A. Lasso, Panama Ministry of Culture

16. Hispanic American Historical Review Board Meeting

Friday, January 7, 2022: 5:30 PM-7:00 PM
Edgewood Room AB (Sheraton New Orleans)
4th Floor

17. CLAH Virtual Session: Chile-Rio de La Plata Studies Section: Cultural History as Resistance

Friday, January 7, 2022: 5:30 PM-7:00 PM

Panel:

Rwany Sibaja, Appalachian State University
Rebekah E. Pite, Lafayette College
Daniel Richter, University of Maryland
Craig Johnson, University of California, Berkeley
Soledad Mocchi-Radich, Washington University in St. Louis
Andra Chastain, Washington State University
Joshua Frens-String, University of Texas at Austin

Comment: Debbie Sharnak, Rowan University

Link: <https://uncc.zoom.us/j/99456404883?pwd=VW5KczhENTBOT01rNFNWR0UrTlpsdz09>

18. CLAH Virtual Session: Gran Colombia Studies Section: Microhistories of Gran Colombia

Friday, January 7, 2022: 5:30 PM-7:00 PM

Panel:

Evelyne Laurent-Perrault, University of California,
Santa Barbara
Ernesto Bassi Arevalo, Cornell University
Ana Maria Otero-Cleves, Universidad de los Andes
Santiago Munoz, University of Connecticut
Shawn Van Ausdal Universidad de los Andes

Comment: Nancy P. Appelbaum, Binghamton
University, State University of New York

Link: <https://uncc.zoom.us/j/95077698889?pwd=bVZXRnArQmRyMGNiSyt4c0NpZjdzQT09>

19. CLAH Virtual Session: Teaching and Teaching Materials Section: Lessons for a (Post-Pandemic) Future

Friday, January 7, 2022: 7:15 PM-8:45 PM

Panel:

Ángela Vergara, California State University, Los Angeles
María de los Ángeles Picone, Boston College

Brenda Elsey, Hofstra University

Comment: The Audience

Link: <https://uncc.zoom.us/j/96247345941?pwd=enN1UVgxM0NRMWk1ZHRWNUQ4b3QyZz09>

20. Colonial Studies Section: Colonial Urban Spaces- Encounters, Exchanges, and Power Brokering

Friday, January 7, 2022: 7:15 PM-8:45 PM
Bayside Ballroom B (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Mariana L. Dantas, Ohio University

Panel:

Sherwin K. Bryant, Northwestern University
Jessica Criales, Lake Forest College
Guadalupe Garcia, Tulane University
John Marquez, Colorado College

Comment: The Audience

CLAH Information Table

Saturday, January 8, 2022: 8:00 AM-11:30 AM
Bayside Foyer (Sheraton New Orleans)
4th Floor

21. Challenging Slavery in the 19th-Century Americas (Joint session with AHA #159)

Saturday, January 8, 2022: 8:30 AM-10:00 AM
Grand Ballroom D (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Camillia Cowling, Warwick University

Papers:

Independence and Abolition in Tierra Firme, 1810-20: War, Slavery, and Republicanism
Marcela Echeverri, Yale University

“A Deep Interest in Your Cause”: The Inter-American Sphere of Black Abolitionism and Civil Rights
Lloyd Belton, University of Leeds

Antislavery Serials in Latin America: Slavery, Literary Culture, and Atlantic Abolitionism
Celso Thomas Castilho, Vanderbilt University

Comment: Laura Rosanne Adderley, Tulane University

22. Breaking Boundaries: Challenging Gender, Race, and the Law in Latin America

Saturday, January 8, 2022: 8:30 AM-10:00 AM
Bayside Ballroom B (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Judith Maria Mansilla, Florida International University

Papers:

Deceiving Crafters: Elite Women in the Production of Documents in Lima, Peru, in the Late 17th Century

Judith Maria Mansilla, Florida International University

Fighting a Manufactured Sin: A Runaway Nun's Ordeal with the Inquisition on the Outskirts of the Spanish Empire

Leonardo Falcon, Nassau Community College

Becoming Lawyers: Women, Afro-Cubans, and the Legal Professions in Late 19th-Century Cuba

Ricardo Pelegrin Taboada, Western Oregon University

Orchestrating a Legal Cadence: Musicians, the City, and the Law in 1930s São Paulo, Brazil

Micah J. Oelze, Franklin & Marshall College

Comment: David A. Sartorius, University of Maryland, College Park

23. Crossing the Brazilian Cold War

Saturday, January 8, 2022: 8:30 AM-10:00 AM

Bayside Ballroom C (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Rafael Rossotto Ioris, University of Denver

Papers:

The Cold War Winds: Black Brazilian Activism Relations with Latin American and Caribbean Countries during the Political Openness/Abertura
Abner Francisco Soteno, University of California, San Diego

An Informed Observer: US Military Attaché Arthur S. Moura on the Brazilian Armed Forces, 1966-75
Andre Pagliarini, Dartmouth College

The Moral Monster: Sonia Seganfreddo's View about the National Student Union during the Brazilian Cold War
Caio Barbosa, Federal University of Bahia

The Experience of Time and Historical Meaning in Child of the Dark: The Diary of Carolina Maria de Jesus
Gessica Guimarães Gaio, State University of Rio de Janeiro

Comment: Rafael Rossotto Ioris, University of Denver

24. Development at the Margins: Latin America, c. 1945-90

Saturday, January 8, 2022: 10:30 AM-12:00 PM
Bayside Ballroom B (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Carlos R. Hernandez III, Southern Methodist University

Papers:

“Industrious” but “Debilitated”: Coal Miners in the Struggle for Democracy in Postwar Brazil, 1946-51
Cody A. Williams, New York University

Foundational Knowledge: Modernizing Agriculture through Education in the Dominican Republic, 1962-77
Gaby Fasold Bergés, New York University

“The Industry without Smokestacks”: Cancún and the Development of Mexico’s Modern Tourist Economy
Carlos R. Hernandez III, Southern Methodist University

“Que esa está loca”: Chavas in Chavos Banda during the Lost Decade in Mexico City
Noe Pliego Campos, University of Notre Dame

Comment: Amy C. Offner, University of Pennsylvania

25. The Politics of Representation in Early 20th-Century Latin America

Saturday, January 8, 2022: 10:30 AM-12:00 PM
Bayside Ballroom C (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Daniel Cozart, University of North Carolina at Charlotte

Papers:

Connections and Mobilities: Triangular Transnationalism in the History of Chinese Mexicans

Jian Gao, University of Texas at Austin

Janet Riesenfeld: "Una Gringuita" of the Golden Age of Mexican Cinema

Maria Labbato, University of North Carolina at Charlotte

Historicizing Afro-Peruvian Invisibility: Activism and Census-Taking since 1940

Daniel Cozart, University of North Carolina at Charlotte

Comment: The Audience

26. Cartographies of the Slavery, Languages of Mobility: Cross-Disciplinary Conversations in Cuba (Joint with AHA #209)

Saturday, January 8, 2022: 1:30 PM-3:00 PM

Grand Ballroom E (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Dan B. Rood, University of Georgia

Papers:

Slaveholders in the South: The Networks of Cubans and Southerners in the Age of the Second Slavery

Daylet Dominguez, University of California,

Berkeley

Captura: Enslaved Mobilities, Coerced Movements, and Bureaucratic Practices in 19th-Century Cuba
Camillia Cowling, Warwick University

Contraband Slave Trade, Passing, and Race in Late Colonial Cuba
Victor Goldgel Carballo, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Paper Archipelagos: Writing Movements in Cuban Slave Society
David A. Sartorius, University of Maryland, College Park

Comment: Dan B. Rood, University of Georgia

27. Forging Communities: Knowledge, Culture, and Race in Colonial Latin American Mining Centers (Joint with AHA #212)

Saturday, January 8, 2022: 1:30 PM-3:00 PM
Napoleon Ballroom C1 (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Mark Dries, Southeastern Louisiana University

Papers:

Dote, Donación, Venta, y Alquiler: Indigenous Andeans and Urban Space in Early Colonial Huancavelica
Mark Dries, Southeastern Louisiana University

Chichimeca Contributions to Mining in New Spain's Guachichila, 1580-1600

Dana Velasco Murillo, University of California, San Diego

¿Peones Libres? Race, Mining, and the Rationalization of Free Labor in the Late Colonial Andes

James Almeida, Harvard university

Sacred Bonds: Kinship Networks and Baptismal Sponsorship in El Cobre, Cuba, during the 17th Century

Handy Acosta Cuellar, Tulane University

Comment: Tatiana Seijas, Rutgers University-New Brunswick

28. The Atlantic Amazon in the Age of Indigenous and African Enslavement (Joint session with AHA #214)

Saturday, January 8, 2022: 1:30 PM-3:00 PM
Napoleon Ballroom C3 (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chairs: Oscar de la Torre, University of North Carolina at Charlotte
Robin Derby, University of California, Los Angeles

Papers:

“Without Blacks, There Is No Pernambuco”: Racial Imaginations over African Slavery and Sugar Production in Portuguese Amazonia, 1670s-1700s
Maria Barreiros Almeida Reis, University of California, Berkeley

The Lives of the Transamazonic Slave Trade: Labor, Marriage, and Kinship, Maranhão, 1740s-70s
Alexandre Pelegrino, Vanderbilt university

Maps for Empires, Lands of Mocambos: Maroon Territoriality across Imperial Franco-Lusophone Borderlands, 1790-1817
Manoel Rendeiro Neto, University of California, Davis

Trafficked Histories: Kinship and Boundary-Making in the Guyanese-Venezuelan Borderlands
Vikram Tamboli, University of California, Los Angeles

Comment: The Audience

29. Molding the Colonial Subject: New Directions on How Colonial Labor Demands Structured Indigenous Patterns of Social Organization

Saturday, January 8, 2022: 1:30 PM-3:00 PM
Bayside Ballroom B (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Marcos Alarcón Olivos, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Papers:

Two Tales of Love, Forced Displacement, and Betrayal: The Construction of a Colonial Economy in the Andes and the Reconfiguration of Gender Relations in Native Peasant Communities, 1573-1600

Marcos Alarcón Olivos, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

The Age of Tribute: Chronological Age, Indigenous Labor, and Colonial Rule in the Andes, 1540-1613

Alfredo Escudero Villanueva,
Florida International University

Tensions between Class and Ethnicity: The Different Practices of Landholding and Labor Recruitment of Native Ruling Families in Central Mexico

Donghoon Lee, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor

Land and Labour Dispossession in the Lowlands: Jesuit Enterprise and Hunter-Gatherers in Chaco Hinterlands

Laura Pensa, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor

Comment: Jeremy Ravi Mumford, Brown University

30. Revolutionary Nationalism: Views from the South (Joint with AHA #232)

Saturday, January 8, 2022: 3:30 PM-5:00 PM
Grand Ballroom B (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Margaret M. Power, Illinois Institute of Technology

Papers:

The School of Friendship between Cuba and the Sahrawi Arab Democratic Republic: How Cuba Prefigures an Independent Western Sahara
Rahel Losier, University of British Columbia

Building the Nation: Iran's Nationalism and Revolution as a Liberation Movement
Raffaele Mauriello, Allameh Tabataba'i University

Teaching Internationalism: The Role of the Cuban Internationalist School in Forging Postcolonial African Elites
Raquel Ribeiro, University of Edinburgh

Puerto Rican Revolutionary Nationalism and Latin American Solidarity in the 1950s
Margaret M. Power, Illinois Institute of Technology

Southern Crossings: Gandhians and the Global Peace Movement, 1950s-60s
Carolien Stolte, Leiden University

Comment: Jessica Stites Mor, University of British Columbia, Okanagan

31. Museums, Memory, and War Contexts in Colombia

Saturday, January 8, 2022: 3:30 PM-5:00 PM
Bayside Ballroom B (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Jimena Perry, East Carolina University

Papers:

The Memory Field in Colombia: Museums and Peace Construction

William Lopez Rosas, National University of Colombia

Identity, Memory, and Resistance in Montes de María: Narrating from Silence

Italia Samudio Reyes, National University of Colombia

Memory Education Experiences in the Colombian Postconflict

Giovanni Castro, Memory House and Museum of Medellín

Magnet Museums in Urban Culture

Nydia Gutierrez, National University of Colombia

Healing to Resist the Denial of the Colombian Armed Conflict

Luis Carlos Manjarrés Martínez, Museum of Bogota

Comment: The Audience

32. Identity and the State in 19th-Century Latin America

Saturday, January 8, 2022: 3:30 PM-5:00 PM

Bayside Ballroom C (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: William Patrick Cohoon, Uplift North Hills Preparatory

Whose State, Whose Nation? Exclusionary Nationalism and Uneven State Presence in Latin America

Paola Galano Toro, ETH Zurich

Being African and Mexican: Veracruz's Afro-Descendants during Mexican Nation-State Consolidation, 1820-26

Alan Malfavon, Washington State University

"Only in Name": Jails and the Limits of Confinement in Bourbon Peru, 1784-1812

William Patrick Cohoon, Uplift North Hills Preparatory

"In Our Climate...A Girl Is Already a Woman...At Around Fourteen": Childhood, Race, and Gendered Violence in Manaus, Brazil, 1870-1900

Ana Luiza Morais Soares, University of Illinois at Chicago

Comment: The Audience

33. Mexican Studies Section: The Uses of Memory in Mexican History

Saturday, January 8, 2022: 6:00 PM-7:30 PM
Bayside Ballroom C (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Monica Diaz, University of Kentucky

Panel:

Edward N. Wright-Rios, Vanderbilt University

Tanalis Padilla, Massachusetts Institute of Technology

Francie Chassen-Lopez, university of Kentucky

Gladys McCormick, Syracuse university

Comment: The Audience

34. The Americas Board Meeting

Saturday, January 8, 2022: 6:00 PM-7:30 PM
Edgewood Room AB (Sheraton New Orleans)
4th Floor

35. CLAH Virtual Session: Caribbean Studies Section: Black Women and World Making in the Caribbean

Saturday, January 8, 2022: 6:00 PM-7:30 PM

Papers:

Slavery and the (De)Valuing of Care Work

Sasha Turner, Johns Hopkins University

More Than Equality: Linda Smart Chubb and Black Feminist Internationalism in Panama
Kaysha Corinealdi, Emerson College

Suzanne Césaire and Claudia Jones on American Imperialism in the Caribbean
Annette Joseph-Gabriel, University of Michigan,
Ann Arbor

Black Women of the Cuban Communist Movement
Takkara Brunson, California State University,
Fresno

Comment: Reena N. Goldthree, Princeton
University

Link: <https://uncc.zoom.us/j/95953192395?pwd=d3ov a1FGQnh5YmxGVXNLZFZINHV1UT09>

36. The Revolutionary Politics of Education Reform in 20th-Century Latin America (Joint session with AHA #259)

Sunday, January 9, 2022: 9:00 AM-10:30 AM
Napoleon Ballroom B1 (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Heather Vrana, University of Florida

Papers:

Colonial History through Textbooks: Projects from Peru and Spain from across the 20th Century

Diego Arispe-Bazan, Northwestern University

Anticolonialism in the Classroom: The Institutionalization of Mexican Multicultural Education Reform, 1977-85

Alan Shane Dillingham, Albright College

Indigenous Expertise, Exchange, and Education in Ecuador, 1930-60

Marlen Rosas, University of Pennsylvania

The Story the Walls Tell: Socialist Iconography and Mexico's Normales Rurales

Tanalís Padilla, Massachusetts Institute of Technology

Comment: Heather Vrana, University of Florida

37. Gender and the Mexican Middle Class in 1940-70 (Joint with AHA #262)

Sunday, January 9, 2022: 9:00 AM-10:30 AM

Napoleon Ballroom C1 (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Victor M. Macías-González, University of Wisconsin-La Crosse

Representations of Transgender Domesticity in Mexico City, 1950-70

Victor M. Macías-González, University of Wisconsin-La Crosse

Myths and Fantasies of the Middle Class: Changing Conceptions of the Middle-Class Family in Mexico City, 1940s-1970s

Susie S. Porter, University of Utah

Looking Good at the Movies: Film Audiences and Women's Self-Presentation in Mexico, 1935-70

Anne Rubenstein, York University

Gender and Catholic Middle-Class Identity, 1940-60

Nichole M. Sanders, University of Lynchburg

Comment: The Audience

38. The Contours of Inter-American History, 1959-76: Revolution, Reform, Rebellion, and Repression

Sunday, January 9, 2022: 9:00 AM-10:30 AM

Bayside Ballroom B (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: William Walker III, University of Toronto

Panel:

William Walker III, University of Toronto

Thomas C. Field, Embry-Riddle College of Security and Intelligence

Miriam Elizabeth Villanueva, Phillips Academy

Alan L. McPherson, Temple University

Comment: The Audience

39. The Making of Modernity: Advertising Beverages, Race, and National Identity in 20th-Century Latin America (Joint with AHA #283)

Sunday, January 9, 2022: 11:00 AM-12:30 PM
Napoleon Ballroom B3 (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Jeffrey M. Pilcher, University of Toronto, Scarborough

Papers:

Selling Guarana: Commercial Advertising and the Rise of Brazil's National Soft Drink Industry
Seth W. Garfield, University of Texas at Austin

Vast Factories, Glass Bottles, and Made-up Women: Visions of Modernity in Mexican Beer and Tequila Ads, 1910-40
Gretchen Pierce, Shippensburg University

Yerba Mate Advertising and Changing Visions of Modernity in Argentina, 1939-58
Julia S. Sarreal, Arizona State University New College

Myth-Making, Myth-Marketing: The Creation and Consumption of Monterrey's Mineral Water
Nancy Turteltaub Donald, University of California, San Diego

Comment: James P. Woodward, Montclair State University

40. Women, Culture, Power: New Views on Archival Evidence from 20th-Century El Salvador (Joint with AHA #284)

Sunday, January 9, 2022: 11:00 AM-12:30 PM
Napoleon Ballroom C1 (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Erik K. Ching, Furman University

Papers:

The Imperative of Developmentalist Natalism: Endemic Goiter and El Salvador's Battle Against Cretinismo

Heather Vrana, University of Florida

Gender in the Bedroom, Streets, and Courts of El Salvador, 1910-60

Aldo Vladimir Garcia-Guevara, Worcester State University

"Buscamos un Hombre (¡y una Mujer!) Nuevo": Negotiating Gendered Norms in Salvadoran Community Organizing, 1968-2001

Stephanie M. Huezco, Fordham University

Our Word Is Fire: Writers and Revolution at La Pájara Pinta, El Salvador, 1966-75

Roger Atwood, Georgetown University

Comment: The Audience

41. Mexico on and off the World's Stage: Labor, Theatre, and Sports from the Porfiriato to Echeverría's Sexenio

Sunday, January 9, 2022: 11:00 AM-12:30 PM

Bayside Ballroom C (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: James Garza, University of Nebraska, Lincoln

Papers:

Making the Invisible Visible: Promoting Mexican Labor at Universal Exhibitions and World's Fairs
Matthew Esposito, Drake University

Mother of the Mexican Nation: Esperanza Iris, Public Entertainment, and the Performance of Virtue in Postrevolutionary Mexico City
Emily Casillas, University of Nebraska Press

Mexico's Invisible Futboleras: The 1970 and 1971 Women's World Cup Competitions, Gendered Nationalism, and Historical Erasure in Mexico's Sports Programs
Madelina Cordia, University of Nebraska, Lincoln

Comment: The Audience

42. Status and Identity in Colonial Spanish America

Sunday, January 9, 2022: 11:00 AM-12:30 PM

Bayside Ballroom B (Sheraton New Orleans)

Chair: Max Deardorff, University of Florida

Papers:

“They Have Always Worn Spanish Clothes”: Indigenous Elites and Sumptuary Legislation on 17th-Century New Spain

Haley Schroer, University of Texas at Austin

Children of Empire: The Ebb and Flow of Mestizo Identity Politics in Early New Kingdom of Granada

Max Deardorff, University of Florida

Malinche’s Son: Sex, Families, and Mestizos in Early Mexico City Society

Bradley Benton, North Dakota State University

Comment: The Audience

Virtual AHA Sessions Feb 21-27, 2022
DATE and TIME TBA

Spatial Histories of Latin America: Digital Mapping, Aerial Imagery, and Archival Challenges (Joint session with AHA #110)

Chair: Zephyr L. Frank, Stanford University

Papers:

Urban Growth and Inequality: Mapping Urban Infrastructure in Mexico City, 1880s-1930s
Andrei Guadarrama, Columbia University

The University from Above: A Spatial History of UNAM, 1946-65
Jessica Mack, Roy Rosenzweig Center for History and New Media

Historical Remote Sensing: Case Studies in the Latin American Context
Frederico Freitas, North Carolina State University

Scopic Regimes of Urbanism: The Charm of the Aerial Sight in the Thinking of Urban Planners in Mexico and Brazil, 1925-40
Alexis Uriel González Correa, Universidad Autónoma Metropolitana-Iztapalapa

Comment: Zephyr L. Frank Stanford University

Fifty Years of Title IX: Evolutions in the Struggle against Sex Discrimination in Education (Joint session with AHA #111)

Chair: S. Deborah Kang, University of Virginia

Papers:

Conquering Heroines: How Academic Women Fought Campus Sex Discrimination and Paved the Way for Title IX

Sara Fitzgerald, author and journalist

Intersectional Discrimination in the Successes of Failures of Title IX

Sherry Boschert, author and journalist

Beyond Compliance: Equitable and Effective Interventions in Campus Violence

Elizabeth Q. Hutchinson, University of New Mexico;

M. Gabriela Torres, Wheaton College

Out of the Footnotes: Centering Women in the History of the Yucatan Peninsula (Joint session with AHA #125)

Chair: Amara L. Solari, Penn State University
Linda Williams, University of Puget Sound

Papers:

A Thirst for Service: Encomenderas and Their Maya Dependents in Early Colonial Yucatan
Hannah R. Abrahamson, Emory University

Uncovering Women's Writing: Female Literacy in Late Colonial Yucatan
Mark Lentz, Utah Valley University; Catherine Tracy Goode, Americas Research Network

Rebellious Teens and Controlling Parents: Intersectional Systems of Privilege in Late Colonial Yucatan
Samantha Davis, Penn State University

Women and Violence in the Yucatecan State Archives of the Late 19th Century
Michele McArdle Stephens, West Virginia University

Cultures of Dissent in Cold War Latin America (Joint session with AHA #158)

Chair: Ernesto B. Capello, Macalester College

Papers:

Revolutionary Cinema: The Cultural Politics of Bolivian Filmmaking under Dictatorship
Sarah Thompson Hines, University of Oklahoma

Schoolhouse Activism: Print, Public Spheres, and the Politics of Dissent among School-Age Children in Pinochet's Chile

Camilo Trumper, State University of New York at Buffalo

The 1980 Mundialito: South American Football Players under Authoritarianism

Brenda Elsey, Hofstra University

Suburban Sprawl and Critiques of Neoliberalism in Argentina in the 1980s and 1990s

Daniel Richter, American University

Comment: Ernesto B. Capello, Macalester College

Biographies as Histories of Latin America: Knowledge, Politics, and Subjectivities during the 20th Century (Joint session with AHA #188)

Chair: A. Ricardo López-Pedrerros, Western Washington University

Papers:

"A Beautiful Death": The Life, Work and Killing of Dr. Hector Abad Gómez

Lina M. Britto, Northwestern University

The Personal Is Political; or, Why We Need to Queer José Carlos Mariátegui

Paulo Drinot, University College, London

Learning from Latin America: An Intellectual Biography of Frank Tannenbaum

Barbara Weinstein, New York University

Comment: The Audience

Transnational Mexican Catholic Histories of the 20th Century (Joint Session with AHA #213)

Chair: Nathan Ellstrand, Loyola University Chicago

Papers:

The Children of Spain and Their Spiritual Communities: The Rise of US, Mexican, and Spanish Catholic Networks during the "First" Cold War, 1917-39

Ricardo Alvarez-Pimentel, Yale University

Sinarquistas, Anti-Communism, and the Catholic Family in Mexico

Julia G. Young, Catholic University of America

Missions without Missionaries: The Mexican Church and Catholic Developmentalism in the Vatican II Era

Eben Levey, University of Maryland, College Park

"This Space Is Sacred": St. Joseph the Worker, Pan-Latino Solidarity, and Housing Dynamics in Grand Rapids, Michigan, 1956-2000

Delia Fernandez, Michigan State University

Comment: The Audience

The Rise and Fall of Chile's "Authoritarian Democracy," 1970-2020 (Joint with AHA #263)

Chair: Stefan Rinke, Institute for Latin American Studies at the Free University of Berlin

Papers:

Art. 4° Chile es una República Democrática: The Social Impact of the Chilean 1980 Constitution through the Lens of the Opposition Press

Claudia Stern, Maestría en Estudios Urbanos y de la Vivienda en América Latina, FADU-UBA

Revolution and Counter-Revolution in Latin America: The Political Project of Pinochet's Dictatorship

José Manuel Castro, University College London and Universidad San Sebastián

The Constitution of 1980 and Changes in the Chilean Dictatorship's Strategy to Counter International Human Rights Criticism

Philipp Kandler, Institute for Latin American Studies at the Free University of Berlin

Blandos: The Opus Dei and the Ideological Origins of Pinochet's "Minimum Consensus"

Daniel Gunnar Kressel, The Institute for Latin American Studies, The Free University of Berlin

Comment: Sarah Walsh, University of Melbourne

Las Derechas: New Directions in the Study of Lay and Clerical Conservatism in Postrevolutionary Mexico (Joint session with AHA #54)

Chair: Julia G. Young, Catholic University of America

Papers:

Mexican Organization, Not Revolution: Salvador Abscal Infante as Sinarquista President, 1940-41
Nathan Ellstrand, Loyola University Chicago

"The Cottonpatch Crusade": Vatican Activism during the Bracero Era, 1942-64
Madeleine C. Olson, University of Texas at Austin

Defending the Nation and the Hemisphere: The Conservative Politics of Service Clubs in 1950s Mexico
David Tamayo, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor

Reactionaries without Borders: Replica Magazine and the Transnational Politics of the Mexican Anticommunist Federation, 1967-75
Luis Alberto Herran Avila, University of New Mexico

Comment: Julia G. Young, Catholic University of America

Constructing Imperial Frontiers: Land Tenure, Resource Extraction, and Boundary Formation in 18th- and 19th-Century Iberian America (Joint session with AHA #65)

Chair: Cynthia Radding, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Papers:

The Great Land Dispute of the Piauí Hinterlands: Land Grants, Conflicts, and Royal Control in Colonial Brazil, 1753-62

Carmen Alveal, Universidade Federal do Rio Grande do Norte

Mining, Indigenous Conquest, and Territorial Expansion in Southern Bahia, 1700-60
Judy Bieber, University of New Mexico

Penal Deportation and Indigenous Exile in Lowland South America

Jeffrey Alan Erbig Jr., University of California, Santa Cruz

Science for the Sertão: New Modes of Inquiry, Old Uncertainties in Minas Gerais, Brazil, 1800

Hal Langfur, State University of New York at Buffalo

Comment: Cynthia Radding, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Petroleum Nationalism in Latin American History
(Joint session with AHA #85)

Chair: Miguel Roberto Tinker Sala, Pomona College

Papers:

Petroleum Nationalism and Mexico's Futuro
Amelia M. Kiddle, University of Calgary

Oil, Resource Nationalism, and International Relations: A Brazilian Dilemma
Natascha Otoyá, Georgetown University

Women WORKers and Petroleum Communities: Maids, Mucamas, Cooks, and Reds in Argentina during the Great Depression
Andrea Andujar, University of Buenos Aires

Connections, Networks, and Transnational Circulations in the History of Latin American Hydrocarbons
Antoine Acker, University of Zurich

Comment: Kevin Young, University of Massachusetts Amherst

Interviews with the Liberator: Four Momentous Meetings with Simón Bolívar

Chair: Rob Alegre, University of New England

Papers:

Alexandre Pétion, Xavier Mina, and Luis Brión in Haiti, 1816

Dante Barksdale, University of California, Davis

Manuela Sáenz: First and Last Meetings with Bolívar and the Life In-Between

Pamela S. Murray, University of Alabama at Birmingham

Bolívar and San Martín at Guayaquil, 1822

Natalia Sobrevilla Perea, University of Kent

Comment: The Audience

Debates on Citizenship in Latin America, 19th and 20th Centuries

Chair: James Sanders, Utah State University

Papers:

Property and Citizenship in the Second Half of the 19th Century

Constanza Castro Benavides, Universidad de los Andes

Political Economy, Citizenship, and Popular Consumption in 19th-Century Colombia

Ana Maria Otero-Cleves, Universidad de los Andes

Cultural Politics under the Liberal Republic: Forging Citizenship through the Stage and Screen

Catalina Munoz, Universidad de los Andes

A Peculiar Democracy: Middle Classes, Elites, and Methodologies of Domination during the Cold War in Colombia

A. Ricardo López-Pedrerros, Western Washington
University

Comment: James Sander, Utah State University

One Hundred Years of Resistance in the Americas

Chair: Miguel Roberto Tinker Salas, Pomona College

Panel:

Cristian Padilla Romero, Yale University

Jennifer Carcamo, University of California, Los Angeles

Carlos Rivas, University of California, Los Angeles

Suyapa Portillo Villeda, Pitzer College

Angela Vergara, California State University, Los Angeles

Comment: The Audience

Central American Studies Section and the Latin American Library at Tulane University: Central America, Archives and History

Chair: Jordana Dym, Skidmore College

Panel:

Hortensia Calvo, The Latin American Library,
Tulane University

Yesenia Martínez, Universidad Nacional Autónoma de Honduras

Thelma Porres, Centro de Investigaciones
Regionales de Mesoamérica

Margarita Vannini, Independent Scholar

Gerardo Monterrosa CIMSUR de Chiapas

Comment: Sylvia Sellers-Garcia, Boston College

Atlantic Studies Section: Resisting Empire-Opposition to Colonial Expansion

Chair: Alex Hidalgo, Texas Christian University

Panel:

Gabrieal Rocha, Brown University

Ernesto Mercado-Montero, Dartmouth College

Tessa Murphy, Syracuse University

Comment: The Audience

Anti-Blackness in Brazilian History: New Perspectives and Horizons
(Joint session with AHA #14)

Chair: Cassie Osei, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Papers:

The Black Press, Whiteness, and Power: Dialogues in Higher Education in Early 20th-Century São Paulo

Mariana Machado Rocha, University of São Paulo

Intergenerational Memory: Tracking Anti-Blackness through Brazilian Oral Histories

Cassie Osei, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Candomblé Priestesses Defining African Heritage in 20th-Century Brazil

Jamie Anderson, Penn State University

Comment: George Reid Andrews, University of Pittsburgh

Past and Present Narratives about Slavery in Brazil: Theatre, Press, Photography, Television, and Tourism

Chair: Barbara Weinstein, New York University

Papers:

Portraying Enslaved Wet Nurses: Slavery, Power, and Visual Narrative in the Brazilian Empire

Mariana de Aguiar Ferreira Muaze, University

Federal do Estado do Rio de Janeiro

The Color of Servitude: Whiteness and Slavery in Brazil

Sonia Roncador, University of Texas at Austin

Sex and Abolition: Debates about Slavery and Abolition in Two Brazilian Television Series, Abolição (1988) and Escrava Anastácia (1990)

Paula Halperin, Purchase College, State University of New York

Passados Presentes: Slavery and Tourism in Brazil

Keila Grinberg, Center for Latin American Studies at the University of Pittsburgh

Comment: The Audience

Brazilian Studies Section: The Politics of Environmental History in Brazil

Chair: Thomas D. Rogers, Emory University

Panel:

Frederico Freitas, North Carolina State University

Lisa Sederez, Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro

Sandro Dutra e Silva, Universidade Evangélica de Goiás

Jennifer Eaglin, Ohio State University

Eve E. Buckley, University of Delaware

Comment: The Audience

Transitions without Transition: Social Rights and Political Struggles across Authoritarian and Democratic Regimes
(Joint with AHA #3)

Chair: Barbara Weinstein, New York University

Papers:

Popular Politics and the Breakdown of Authoritarian Rule in Greater Buenos Aires

Jennifer Adair, Fairfield University

The Opposition Within: Political Violence and Transition Politics in Chile

Alison J. Bruey, University of North Florida

Compulsory Retirement: Incomplete Transitions for Amnestied Soldiers after Democratization in Brazil, 1978-85

Marília Corrêa, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor

“Let’s Make History Yet Again”: Education, Democracy, and Student Mobilization across Dictatorial and Democratic Regimes in Brazil, 1961-2013

Colin M. Snider, University of Texas at Tyler

Comment: Barbara Weinstein, New York University

The Science of Space and Politics of Maps in the Circum-Caribbean during the Age of Revolutions
(Joint session with AHA #15)

Chair: Lauren MacDonald, Idaho State University

Papers:

Mapping the Southern Caribbean during the Revolutionary Era

Dexnell Peters, Exeter College, University of Oxford

Probing the Cartographic Empire: How a Spanish Spy Mission Illuminates Empty Spaces on 18th-Century Maps and the Limits of Political Space

Matthew Nielsen, Western Michigan University

Hinterland Islands: The Projection of Isleño Spatiality in the Lower Mississippi Valley

Matthew Franco, Independent Scholar and Goucher College

Centering Women's Activism in 20th-Century Cuba, Guatemala, and Nicaragua (Joint session with AHA #23)

Chair: Emily Taylor, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Papers:

Las Mujeres Contra el Machadato: Women's Resistance in the Era of Gerardo Machado, 1925-33

Dani McIvor, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

"Your Position Is the Rearguard": Antifascist Cuban Women and the Spanish Civil War

Ariel Mae Lambe, University of Connecticut at Storrs

"We Have Made Them Tremble": El Grupo de Apoyo Mutuo, Gender, and Human Rights Activism in Guatemala

Emily Taylor, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Comment: Jocelyn H. Olcott, Duke University

Geopolitics, Information, and Technology in Cold War Latin America (Joint session with AHA #30)

Chair: Alan L. McPherson, Temple University

Papers:

Alarming News: The Cuban Missile Crisis and the Media in Latin America

Renata Keller, University of Nevada at Reno

Visual Narratives and Memories of the Agrarian Reform in 1960s and 1970s Colombia

Juanita Rodríguez, Binghamton University, State University of New York

Spreading the "Good" News: Radio Sutatenza/Acpo, Communication Technologies, and the Struggle to Modernize without Revolution in Rural Colombia, 1958-74

Mary J. Roldan, Hunter College, City University of New York

Information, Archives, and the Search for Justice in Mexico

Vanessa Freije, University of Washington, Seattle

Comment: Lillian Guerra, University of Florida

Book History in Latin America: A New Conversation
(Joint session with AHA #62)

Chair: Alex Hidalgo, Texas Christian University

Panel:

Celso Thomas Castilho, Vanderbilt University
Paloma Celis Carbajal, New York Public Library
Rachel Stein, Tulane University
Corinna Zeltsman, Georgia Southern University

Migrant Citizenship in the Americas (Joint session with AHA #133)

Chair: Veronica Martinez-Matsuda, Cornell University

Papers:

Caribbean Immigrants and Civic Engagement in the Sugar Towns of Eastern Cuba, 1910-40

Frances Sullivan, Simmons University

From Periphery to Periphery: Northeastern Migration to São Paulo, Brazil, 1950-70

Daniel McDonald, University of Rochester

Against "Rural Homlessness": Farmworkers' Fight for Civic Inclusion during the US War on Poverty

Veronica Martinez-Matsuda, Cornell University

Creating Citizenship without a Nation: Guatemalan Refugees in Chiapas, Mexico, 1979-86

Catherine A. Nolan-Ferrell, University of Texas at San Antonio

Comment: The Audience

The Connected Gulf: Political Diasporas, Labor Migrations, and Transnational Belonging in the 19th-Century Gulf of Mexico (Joint session with AHA #186)

Chair: Adriana Chira, Emory University

Papers:

Fugitives, Foreigners, or FOes? Collaboration and Fear in Spanish Louisiana during the Age of Revolution

Christina Marie Villarreal, University of Texas at El Paso

Claiming Rights and Freedom across the Yucatan Channel: Yucatecan Women, Mexican Consuls, and Spanish Officials in 19th-Century Cuba

Oriol Regué-Sendrós, John Hopkins University

Transnational Voices during Hegemonic Transition: New Orleans' Spanish Language Newspapers and the Gulf Print Circuit

Rafael Delgadillo, University of California, Santa Cruz

Cultures of Circulation, Traditions of Subversion: The Making of the Gulf World in the Americas

Dalia A. Muller, State University of New York at Buffalo

Comment: Adriana Chira, Emory University

The Social Fabrics of Medicinal and Bodily Knowledge in Early Latin America (Joint Session with AHA #238)

Chair: Paula D. De Vos, San Diego State University

Papers:

Nursing Bonds and Boundaries: Milk Kinship in the Spanish Atlantic World

Celia Crisfasi, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Creating Medical and Judicial Truths: Expert Testimonies of Midwives in New Granada's Bourbon Era

Lisette Varón Carvajal, Rutgers-New Brunswick

Nations, Networks, and Knowledge: Circulation of Medical Knowledge in the 17th-Century Spanish Viceroyalties

Aimee Dávila Hisey, Oregon State University

Comment: Adam W. V. Warren, University of Washington, Seattle

Avocados, Sugar Beets, and Automobiles: Transnational Markets and Local Labor Practices in the Americas, 1950-2000 (Joint with AHA #264)

Chair: Jennifer L. Schaefer, Carleton College

Papers:

From Local Cooperatives to Transnational Corporations: Mexican and American Avocado Growers, 1950-2002

Viridiana Hernandez Fernandez, Ohio State University

“Doing the Ontario Thing”: Transnational Mennonite Labor Migration between Mexico and Canada
Ben Nobbs-Thiessen, University of Winnipeg

The Detroit of Argentina: Automobile Manufacturing and Labor Unions in Córdoba Argentina
Jennifer L. Chafer, Carleton College

Comment: John Soluri, Carleton College

Empire’s Children: Childhood, Colonialism, and Violence in Latin American History (Joint session with AHA #281)

Chair: Jeremy Ravi Mumford, Brown University

Papers:

“The School Is Absolutely without Discipline”: Race, Empire, and Child Criminality in Early 20th-Century Cuba
Daniel Rodriguez, Brown University

The Advisability of Return: Child Welfare Policy and Migration in Puerto Rican History, 1940-70
Emma Balbina Amador, University of Connecticut at Storrs

Violence, Sexuality, and the Historiography of Childhood
Jeremy Ravi Mumford, Brown University

Comment: Bianca Premo, Florida International University

Transnational Perspectives on the Cold War Era in Latin America

Chair: Myra Ann Houser, Ouachita Baptist University

Papers:

Panama-North Korea Relations during the Torrijos Era: A Case Study in the Theory and Practice of Third World Solidarity

Moe Taylor, University of Wisconsin-Madison

New York, Managua, Soweto: Central American and Southern African Solidarities during the Late 20th Century

Myra Ann Houser, Ouachita Baptist University

Internationalism and COntinental Revolution: Transnational Militant Networks between the Southern Cone and Central America, 1973-96

Eudald Cortina Orero, Universidad Autónoma de Madrid

Comment: The Audience

Brazilian Labor History in Inter American Dialogue

Chair: Alexander Fortes, Universidade Federal

Rural do Rio de Janeiro

Papers:

Doormen and the Individualization of Racism in Brazil, 1950–88

Jerry Davila, University of Illinois Urbana
Champaign

Hemispherical Security and the Labor Question:
Vargas' New State According to J. Edgar Hoover
Alexander Fortes, Universidade Federal Rural do
Rio de Janeiro

International Feminist Connections and the Birth of Women Labor Rights, 1917–37

Glauca Fraccaro, Universidade Federal de Santa
Catarina Florianópolis

Real Labor Movements, Imagined Revolutions: The Northeastern Brazilian Sugar Zone through US
Eyes, 1955–64

Thomas Rogers, Emory University

Comment: Gillian A. McGillivray, York University, Glendon

Liberationist Identities: The Development of Alternative Gendered and Racial Religious Traditions in the Contemporary Americas

Chair: Travis Kenneth Knoll, Duke University

Papers:

Celebrating Black Revolt in the Name of God: The 1981 Quilombo Mass as a Liberationist Performance

Travis Kenneth Knoll, Duke University

The Catholic Women's Counter-Conference at Puebla (1979)

Natalie Gasparowicz, Duke University

Invisible Resistance: The Brazilian Dictatorship, Antiracist Struggle, and Afro-Brazilian Religious Practices

Marcelo José Domingos, University of Texas at Austin

And the Word Waged War with Us: American Christian Literacy in the First Decade of Development

Aaron Colston, Duke University

Lè Ayisyen: The Message behind the Drums

Ayanna Jessica Legros, Duke University

Comment: The Audience

Networks of Health and Biomedical Knowledge in Modern Times: Scientists, Lay Experts, and the State in Latin America (Joint session with AHA #129)

Chair: Daniel Rodriguez, Brown University

Papers:

Vaccinating Mexico: Smallpox, Public Health, and the Metamorphosis of a Welfare State
Paul F. Ramirez, Northwestern University

The Politics of Healing: Leprosy and Biomedical Knowledge Production in Brazil, c. 1850
Maria Paula Andrade, Vanderbilt University

Promoting Health: Rural Nurses and Indigenous Authorities in 20th-Century Oaxaca, Mexico
Marissa Nichols, Emory University

Transforming Knowledges: Ayahuasca, Expertise, and the Human Sciences in Peru, 1962-72
Taylor Dysart, University of Pennsylvania

Comment: Daniel Rodriguez, Brown University

“Not Like Us”: Blackness, Racism, and Slaveholding in the Hispanic Atlantic (Joint session with AHA #180)

Chair: Natalia Sobrevilla Perea, School of European Languages and Cultures, University of Kent

Papers:

Free from This Tribute: Taxation, Blackness, and Family in New Spain

Norah Gharala, University of Houston

Slaveholding Women in 19th-Century Cuba

Teresa Prados-Torreira, Columbia College, Chicago

Black Fear: Racism, Slavery, and Radical Politics in Spain's Atlantic Empire

Jesús Sanjurjo, Cardiff University

Blackness in a White Nation: The Racialization Process in Argentina

Erika Denise Edwards, University of North Carolina at Charlotte

Comment: The Audience

Labor and Land Reform across Borders in the 20th-Century Andes (Joint with AHA #282)

Chair: Elena C. McGrath, Union College

Papers:

The Politics of Port Labor in 20th-Century Peru

Joshua Savala, Rollins College

Making Enemies and Allies: Bolivia's Foreign Relations, 1952-56

Carmen Solíz, University of North Carolina at Charlotte

Ghosts in the Machines: Gender, Technology, and Labor in the Lima Telephone Operators Strike of 1931

Mark Rice, Baruch College, City University of New York

Mineworkers and Merchants in the Bolivian Borderlands

Elena C. McGrath, Union College

Comment: The Audience

Andean Studies Section: Social Movements and Governments in the Andes, Past and Present

Chair: Sarah Thompson Hines, University of Oklahoma

Panel:

Waskar Ari-Chackaki, University of Nebraska, Lincoln

Valeria Coronel, FLACSO Ecuador

Victor Maque, Purdue University

Comment: The Audience

Frontiers/Borderlands Studies Section: State of the Field-Migrant Incarceration

Chair: Jessica Ordaz, University of Colorado Boulder

Panel:

Kristina Shull, University of North Carolina at Charlotte

Elliott G. Young, Lewis & Clark College

Carl Lindskoog, Raritan Valley Community College

Jonathan Inda, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Patrisia Macias-Rojas, University of Illinois at Chicago

Comment: The Audience

Mobility and Mobilization in the Early Modern Americas: Emerging Studies of Environment, Labor, and Migration

Chair: Norah Gharala, University of Houston

Papers:

Land Occupations in the 17th-Century New Spain: Indigenous Movements of Sovereignty and Autonomy against Colonial Encroachment

Cody Love, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

From Captives to Captors: The Art of Brokering Peace through Bondage and Ransom in the Fringes of Late Colonial Mexico

José Manuel Moreno Vega, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Forced Migrations and Transimperial Slave Trading in Spanish Louisiana, 1770-1803

Daniel Velásquez, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

“Para Gobernar Bien un País, es Necesario Conocerlo”: 19th-Century Geographic Expedition to Chiloé, Regional History, and State Formation

Javier Etchegaray, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Comment: The Audience

Insurgency and Daily Life in Peru (1980-92)

Chair:

Charles F. Walker, University of California, Davis

Papers:

Terror, Resignation, and Exhilaration: Daily Life in Ayacucho during the Rise of Shining Path, 1979–85

Charles F. Walker, University of California, Davis

The Shining Path and Peasants: Everyday Life in the Guerrilla Retreat Zone

Renzo Aroni, Columbia University

Lima Nights: Blackouts, Curfews, and Urban Life during Peru's Shining Path Period

Willie Hiatt, Long Island University Post

People Power: The National Popular Assembly in a Time of Violence

Tamara D. N. Feinstein, Murray State University

Comment:

Rachel Nolan, Boston University

Framing Development in the 20th-Century Andes and Guatemala

Chair: Oscar Chamosa, University of Georgia

Papers:

Building Houses in a Civil War: Habitat for Humanity in the Guatemala Highlands, 1979-89

Oscar Chamosa, University of Georgia

Forking Paths to Coca-Cocaine: Colombia, 1950s-2000s

Maria Clara Torres, University of Florida

Progress and Private Interests: Retails, Real Estate Developers, and Civic Discourse in Medellin, Colombia, 1900-72

William Demarest, State University of New York at Stony Brook

Andean Agrochemicals: Competing Discourses of Development in Cusco, Peru 1960-75
Taylor Fulkerson, Cristo Rey Jesuit High School

Comment: The Audience